

COX FIGHTS SHY OF '18TH HOLE' IN GOLF SPEECH

DAYTON, O., July 8.—The presidential campaign of Governor Cox will be outlined early next week, when Franklin D. Roosevelt, vice-presidential nominee; Homer S. Cummings, national chairman; E. H. Moore, Cox' manager at San Francisco, and other Democratic authorities meet. Cox said today he wishes to begin active campaigning at the earliest possible date.

Cox was to visit his birthplace, Lebanon, O., twenty-five miles from here, today.

The Governor spoke to the Ohio State Golf Association at the Dayton Country Club last night. Several times he came near political questions than golf. He told the golfers he will keep his part of the campaign free from any personalities.

"Senator Harding and I are the same friends we have been for many years," he said, "and will be."

He urged the golfers to encourage home building as one of the surest means of stimulating patriotism.

"Better days are just ahead and I believe open competition in politics will help bring them. It is a good thing that once every four years we lift our eyes off the commercial ledger and put them on the flag."

Once it seemed that Cox would bring up the prohibition issue, but he evaded it, remarking that he knew when he was on "thin political ice."

From present indications the Democratic notification ceremonies probably will take place at Trail's End, the governor's suburban home, where several thousand people gathered two weeks before his nomination to celebrate with him the occasion of the departure of the Ohio delegation for San Francisco.

Council Petitioned for Night School

The controversy that raged recently in the Board of Education over the discontinuance of a portion of the evening school course was carried to the City Council today in the form of a petition asking that sufficient provision be made in the new city budget for the evening high school classes.

The petition was presented by Mrs. Emma Heffron, 302 Oakland avenue, and was referred to the budget committee.

The Realty Syndicate Company today petitioned for the closing and abandonment of portions of Kingsland avenue and Denon, Wyman and Mountain View streets. The application was referred to the street department for investigation.

Property owners in the vicinity filed an application for the completion of the paving of the Foothill boulevard extension from East Fourth street to Foothill boulevard.

Liberals Discuss LaFollette to Head Ticket; Name Fight

CHICAGO, July 8.—Senator Robert LaFollette of Wisconsin will be chosen the third party's presidential nominee, according to the prevailing belief of delegates expected to attend the convention of the Committee of Forty-Eight and the National Labor Party, which open Saturday and Sunday.

LaFollette will not be allowed to keep the conventions in suspense. Assurance must be given that he will accept, leaders said.

Amos Pinchot of the Committee of Forty-Eight left here today for Madison, Wis., to talk to LaFollette, who has just returned from an operation at Rochester, Minn.

Frank P. Walsh, of Kansas City, also was a possible candidate. He is a member of both liberal parties and particularly favored by labor. LaFollette's strength, it was said, lies in his ability to draw the entire support of the Non-Partisan League.

FIGHT OVER NAME

A. W. Ricker, treasurer of the Committee of Forty-Eight, believes a third party could win in North and South Dakota, Idaho, Montana and Washington with LaFollette.

A row apparently has developed over the name of the new party. The Committee of Forty-Eight favors any new name under which all parties could unite. The Labor party is expected to make the new party be called the "Labor Party."

Informal conferences were held today by Committee of Forty-Eight leaders. Tomorrow the national committee from both parties will meet.

Two thousand delegates expected to attend the Labor party session will bear the expenses of the convention. Each delegate will be assigned to a hotel. The convention is to be held in a building built by the street car conductors' and motormen's union. It will hold $500.

Delegates will be seated by States and each delegate will be allowed a vote if he holds credentials from any labor union.

The Committee of Forty-Eight will hold its convention at the Hotel Morrison. The seating capacity there is 1400.

Voting by delegates at the Committee of Forty-Eight convention will be similar to the voting of delegates at the major party conventions.

WATSON WINS

LaFollette, mentioned as the prospective Presidential nominee of a third party, will make known his attitude toward the new movement in LaFollette's Magazine next week. According to a reliable source, he is ready to make the race, providing liberal organizations unanimously agree on him and allow him to write the platform. LaFollette conferred here for several hours with his supporters yesterday and the third party movement was discussed.

DEMOCRAT SEAL OF POWER WORN ON OHIO FINGER

WASHINGTON, July 8.—Governor Cox will be allowed to take party leadership without White House resistance, indications disclose.

Officials from President Wilson down have made it plain that their part in the coming campaign depends on wishes of Cox and his campaign managers. No word of criticism has come from any Democratic official.

As explained today, the attitude is that Wilson followers wrote the platform and got their League of Nations plank, and now Cox is willing to stand on that plank and on a broad endorsement of the administration.

There is a growing belief that President Wilson's part in the campaign will be through written word, rather than speeches, as at first understood.

Sternberg Starts New Revolt in Siberia

WASHINGTON, July 8.—Barron Sternberg is leading a revolt against General Semenov, despatches received today by the State Department from Harbin, Manchuria, stated.

Sternberg, it was stated, had formerly been a general in the command of Semenov and had been dismissed.

Race in Georgia Is Told During Palmer Inquiry

CHICAGO, July 8.—The Senate committee investigating campaign expenditures completed its work in Chicago today by examining Henry Lincoln Johnson, negro Representative and national committeeman from Georgia and manager of the Lowden campaign in that State.

The committee will leave tonight for St. Louis, where investigation of Attorney-General Palmer's campaign for the Democratic presidential nomination will be opened tomorrow.

Johnson confirmed the statement of the Lowden campaign treasurer that he had received $5000 from the Illinois governor's campaign chest. He set his own expenses in Georgia at $20,000, charging the Wiley supporters had spent $50,000; and also accused the Democrats of spending large sums and buying votes at from $5 to $5000 each in local elections.

The principal witnesses in the Palmer investigation will be Edward P. Gottra, Democratic national committeeman from Missouri, and Joseph T. Davis, an attorney of St. Louis.

A report that Gottra paid the expenses of twenty-eight delegates to the State convention which ousted Senator Reed from his national convention seat will be one of the matters investigated, it was said. Senator Reed is a member of the investigating committee.

The committee plans to delve thoroughly into the campaign of Gottra before adjourning its hearings, Kenyon said.

POLITICAL PARADOX

OTWIZ IS PROSECUTED

In addition to questioning Davis and Gottra, the committee will investigate charges filed by William Armstrong, Chicago lawyer, that the Department of Justice had been instrumental in granting pardons to alleged criminals who might help politically and had blocked prosecution by the government of persons trying to gain several hundred thousand dollars by illegal means.

Armstrong charged the Department of Justice with attempting to "prevent indictments being returned against the New York Central railroad by a Federal grand jury," and said "a Democratic member of Congress" agreed with "a certain person" to obtain $25,175.12 from the government on post-war claims if given 25 percent.

Democrats paid from $5 to $5000 for votes in Georgia this year and generally spent more money than the Republicans," Johnson told the committee.

He declared he would "need about $50,000 to combat some Democratic conditions here."

The steam roller in the Republican national convention was an "institution of benevolence" compared with the Democratic steam roller in Georgia, Johnson said, adding the conditions there were controlled by the administration.

Senator Kenyon suddenly turned to the Palmer campaign in Georgia, asking Johnson if officials of the Department of Justice took part in the attorney general's campaign there.

"Hooper J. Alexander of Atlanta was the leader," Johnson said.

GENERAY DYER DEFENDS ORDER TO KILL 500

LONDON, July 8.—General R. H. Dyer, whose troops shot down nearly 500 Indians at Amritsar in the Punjab in April, 1919, was defended in the House of Commons today on the ground he was upholding British authority.

General Dyer was condemned by an army council for ordering his men to fire upon the crowds in the streets of the Indian city. A government investigation that was under debate in Commons today.

General Dyer itemized his defense. He claimed he had reason to believe that the mobs had decided to challenge British authority and felt that, if he shirked the challenge, the Indian people would hold the British Government in derision.

General Dyer said that there was much unrest and that he feared that mobs might take matters into their own hands, killing all Europeans in Amritsar, including women and children.

Alameda Army Man Arrives in America

ALAMEDA, July 8.—Returning to the United States after practically three years overseas, Colonel Joseph McKenny of Alameda is now in New York, according to a telegram received by his wife, 2529 Webb avenue.

Colonel McKenny served with Pershing's brigade during the entire period of the war and returned to America for a few weeks, then going back to Germany, where he has since been stationed.

The army man's plans are indefinite. It is probable Mr. McKenny will find his way to his home.

KELLEY EVIDENCE VANISHES OUT OF POLICE CUSTODY

reply to the question of where he had been arrested he said "Somewhere between Nineteenth and Webster," but later stated, "Somewhere on Twelfth street."

He then brought out the fact about the missing diagram, saying Kelley had drawn a map purporting to show where he had been. "Have you that map?" he was asked.

"No," he replied.

UNABLE TO MIGHT CHARGE CLAIM

The defense then demanded that the diagram be produced, and this elicited the fact that it was missing.

Further questioning by the prosecution resulted in the defense objecting on the ground that it was tending to intimate that the defendant was suspected of taking the map.

In reply to this, Deputy Harris declared:

"We do not intimate, we do not insinuate, and we do not think that Joe Kelley took it."

In describing the actions of Kelley, Gannaw and Tracy declared that his clothing was disarranged, he was incoherent in his answers and not able to walk without staggering. Tracy added that he tried to light a cigarette but could not get the match and cigarette together.

The defense subjected both Tracy and Gannaw to a grilling cross-examination. They brought out the fact that the "diagram" Kelley said he was arrested "somewhere between Nineteenth and Webster" had not been given at the preliminary hearing, but that Gannaw had testified Kelley said he was arrested "about Nineteenth and Webster."

During the cross examination of Gannaw, the latter testified he had just glanced over the transcript of the evidence taken at the preliminary hearing. Tracy later testified that he had read the transcript out loud in Gannaw's presence. These facts were brought out after a long period of cross examination.

In answer to further questions he said he had just seen it in the police court and that it was in possession of Inspector Tracy. His statement that Kelley's eyes were bloodshot and that they indicated he was drunk, resulted in the defense calling Dr. O. D. Hamilton out of order. He testified that Kelley had been suffering from eye trouble that causes them to become bloodshot and that during the previous month the defendant had been so afflicted.

KELLEY STAGGERING. PATROLMAN SAYS

Patrolman Ploog was emphatic in his testimony that Kelley was drunk. He declared he smelled liquor on his breath, and that Kelley had the appearance of being very drunk. He said he walked the defendant from in front of the municipal auditorium, where the arrest was made, to the patrol box at First avenue and East Twelfth street, that Kelley staggered during the walk and that upon arriving at the box he seemed to be very drunk.

Patrolman Gallup who also placed Kelley under arrest, testified that he was unable to say whether Kelley was drunk or not.

"I did not smell liquor on Kelley's breath," he said when being cross examined. "I am not prepared to say whether he was drunk or not."

A. E. McCloud, motorman on the street car which Kelley is declared to have blocked when his automobile became stalled on the track, said he was unable to testify concerning Kelley's condition, although he was driving the car in an erratic manner. The automobile, he said, was going about ten miles an hour.

Elmer Hansen, conductor on the car, did not prove an important witness. He testified that he saw nothing of Kelley's actions preceding the arrest.

STOWAWAY TO BE ADOPTED BY WEALTHY WOMAN

NEW YORK, July 8.—After having crossed the ocean five times hidden behind bales and boxes, Mike Gibboey, 14 years old, "stowaway" may within a few months travel luxuriously aboard a trans-Atlantic liner bound for Europe for a temporary visit to promote his education.

This occurred today when Mrs. Marie C. Curry, who adopted the Irish-Belgian war orphan, mascot of American troops, said that she had asked Ellis Island officials what she would have to do if she wished to take the boy to Europe on a trip which he is contemplating.

"The boy has been good as gold," said Mrs. Curry. "He has completed school and is now going to a boy scout camp for the summer."

China's Goat Skins Fourth of Exports

SHANGHAI, July 8.—Mary's little lamb has nothing on China's goat. It has rambled over to the United States—in sections.

An American consular report issued here says goat skins sent from China to the United States in the quarter of the fiscal year ending on March 31, were valued at $7,033,480.

And China's goat approximated 25 per cent of the total exports of the country for that period.

"There's a Reason"

DON'T VOTE FOR SUFFRAGE, PLEA OF L. A. WOMAN

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS. LEASED WIRE TO TRIBUNE.

KNOWSVILLE, Tenn., July 8.—Miss Annie Hoc of Los Angeles, formerly an equal suffrage leader, in a letter to W. E. Anderson, in the house of representatives in the Tennessee legislature, urges him not to support ratification of the suffrage amendment. Suffrage, she says, coarsens and cheapens women. She expresses her regret at her former activity, saying that since suffrage has been granted there has been an increase in immorality, divorce and murder in California.

"I was one of the workers who helped to bring suffrage to California and I regret it," she said. "A year in politics has taught me that women are intolerant, radical, revolutionary and more corrupt than men, also all this so-called reform leads to the Socialist co-operative commonwealth."

CRIME INCREASE, SHE SAYS

"Since suffrage there has been an alarming increase in immorality, divorce and murder in California. Woman suffrage has made cowards and puppets of men. It has coarsened and cheapened women. Were the men to vote on woman suffrage in California today, it would not carry."

"Suffragists asked suffrage that they might put only good men in office; now they clamor for a fifty-fifty show for all offices. I shall do penance forever for the part I played in bringing suffrage in California."

"CALAMITY FOR SOUTH"

"Please urge all your colleagues not to do what will bring regret and disaster, but to stand for that 90 percent of women who do not want suffrage, but are glad to trust all politics and governmental affairs to their loved husbands, fathers, sons and brothers."

"To the South, woman suffrage would bring more than calamity."

STEPS IN FRONT OF CAR.

SEATTLE, Wash., July 8.—Deputy coroners were trying to determine today whether C. E. Benadon committed suicide or was the victim of abasement.

He stepped in front of an Everett Interurban here last night and was instantly killed.

BETS 100 TO 1 AGAINST BRYAN; HE'S DOLLAR IN

It now being certain that William Jennings Bryan was not nominated by the Democratic party for its presidential candidate in the coming race, Sam Herman, local produce man, who held stakes in a nomination bet today turned over said stakes to A. W. Knight, poultry dealer, the winner of the bet.

Lloyd Stetson, buyer for Hunt, Hatch and Company, bet on Bryan to win the nomination. Knight gave him hundred-to-one odds.

'Good Old Days' Gone at Germany's Races

BERLIN, July 8.—Democracy really has reached Germany. The racetracks show that, if all other signs were missing. The hundreds of thousands who now attend the race meets in Hamburg, Ruhlens, Grunewald, Frankfurt and Dresden are "of the people." The pomp and display that marked racing back in the Kaiser's days are gone. The big crowds who now attend are working folks, and they taking this amusement with all the gusto and enthusiasm that their former masters had.

A new way of washing

You just soak your clothes clean instead of the old rubbing and boiling

JUST imagine your clothes washing themselves for you overnight!

Imagine their washing themselves without any washing "aids" whatsoever — no boiler, no wash-board, no scrub-brushes, pails and dippers—and no hard work!

You just put your clothes to soak—with a new soap product.

You have been told so often of products that would wash your clothes for you, of products that would get the dirt out without any work on your part, that the story of this new product is going to be hard for you to believe.

It is hard to believe that a simple soap product, absolutely harmless, can, just by a soaking overnight, so loosen the dirt in your clothes that when they are rinsed in the morning, all the dirt comes out.

As a matter of fact, if the overnight soaking is inconvenient, three hours soaking will accomplish the same wonderful result.

All you have to do is to take them out and rinse them!

And they are snowy white and clean! Only a few very soiled places, like cuff edges, need a light rubbing between your hands.

That is what RINSO is doing for thousands of women who have already secured it. It has changed their whole way of washing.

And those same women felt as you now feel, when they first heard of RINSO'S wonderful results—they couldn't believe it!

And now they are like Mrs. Terry—whose letter is given here—they have found that the old way of washing is gone—and that the new RINSO way of soaking your clothes clean has entirely eliminated the hardest work a housewife has to do—washday boiling and rubbing.

Use RINSO yourself this week—see how it really soaks your clothes clean—see if you don't feel just as enthusiastic as Mrs. Terry does.

Get RINSO today from your grocer, and follow the simple directions on the package. It is only 8c. Lever Bros. Co., Cambridge, Mass. (Makers of Lux).

"Soaking Clothes is Certainly Easier Than Rubbing Them"

says Mrs. Terry

"When I first used Rinsol I thought if it only saved half of the usual rubbing it would be wonderful. The directions for mixing it up were easy to follow—and I got a beautiful sudsy tubful for the clothes to soak in over night. And in the morning—most of the dirt dropped right out in the Rinsol suds, as I wished the clothes up and down. One or two really ground-in spots came out like magic when I put a little dry Rinsol on the spots and rubbed lightly between my hands. Two good rinsings and the clothes were beautifully white and ready for the line at 9 o'clock instead of not till noon. There wasn't any of the exhausting work that washing had always meant before. Soaking clothes clean is certainly easier than rubbing."

Mrs. M. A. Terry, New York City.

MAN DIES TRYING TO RESCUE CHILD

YOSEMITE, July 8.—Gertrude Kistler, 12-year-old daughter of Sedgewick Kistler of Lock Haven, Penn., a delegate to the Democratic national convention, was drowned in the Merced river here, and H. J. Pink of Los Angeles, who went to her rescue, slipped on a rock as he entered the stream and fractured his skull, death resulting instantly. The accident occurred above Happy Isles. Pink, who was a well-known member of the Elks' Lodge of Los Angeles, drove into the Yosemite with Mrs. Kistler and her daughter and Mrs. James Powers. Kistler was en route to the valley on a special train bringing convention delegates from San Francisco, but was held up at Merced by an accident. He was reached by telephone and resumed the journey by automobile at once. The girl's body has not been found.

Witnesses of the accident worked over Pink's body in the hope that he could be resuscitated, but Dr. F. E. Stein on examination reported that he had not been drowned, but was killed by the fall. Pink was well known in the Yosemite. This was his fourth trip into the valley this year.

PLUMS' PRICE RECORD
MARYSVILLE, July 8.—One of the first carloads of Sutter county plums was shipped east by the Fruit Company. It consisted of 1000 twenty-five pound crates, and brought $452, the highest price ever paid for a car of California plums.

Four Hurt As Tire Explodes Injured Man Left in Street

STOCKTON, July 8.—Albert Telegraph avenue, conductor of the Castle, 2008 Lyon street; Earl Brehan, 2429 Vallejo street, and Armando Violette, 1927 Larkin street, injured, all of San Francisco, are the results of an automobile accident on the French Camp road this morning. The car blew a rear tire while traveling at high speed and left the road, turning over several times. A Reno banner on the windshield indicated that the party were returning to San Francisco after attending the celebration in Nevada.

A close search is being made by the police today for a large yellow touring car with initials on the door which late last night struck and ran over L. E. Soberanes, of 2424 Foot-hill boulevard, at Ashby and San Pablo avenues, in Berkeley, and sped away.

Soberanes had just stepped from a car when the yellow touring car dashed at high speed past the street car. Soberanes leaped back in an effort to avoid being run down, but the automobile was traveling too fast, and Soberanes was hurled to the pavement.

Both wheels of the automobile passed over his legs. The car slowed down an instant while the occupants, evidently a party of mid-night roisterers, looked back at their victim prostrate in the street.

Then the horn of the big car tooted derisively and it sped away, despite the calls of S. E. Clark, 1864

Soberanes was badly bruised but his legs were not broken. A description of the car was given to all policemen in the city and the police say that vigorous prosecution awaits the occupants if they are caught.

NEAR-SIGHTED MAN RUN DOWN BY TRUCK

When he stepped from a street car at East Fourteenth and Fruitvale avenue last night, E. G. Gay, 2908 Grant street, Berkeley, was run down by a truck driven by W. L. Howell, 1500 Forty-fifth avenue. Gay says he is near-sighted and did not see the approach of the truck.

An American Express company truck last night ran into a fire hydrant at Twelfth boulevard and Fairfax avenue and bent it double. Passing over the hydrant the truck cut a large shade tree to the ground and disappeared. The police seek the name of the driver.

In a collision between cars driven by Patrolmen E. S. Bettencourt and John Gebhart, of 2308 College avenue, both cars were damaged and the drivers shaken up. The collision occurred at Telegraph avenue and Forty-fourth street.

KOBEKUK, Iowa, July 8.—Every-body wants to be a juror in a justice of the peace court in Keokuk Saturday. Federal agents confiscated a lot of home brew and the owner is raising the question as to whether it is liquor. His attorney says the jurors will have to sample the stuff.

CARUSO SUSPECT HELD AT NAPLES

NAPLES, July 7 (United Press).—Police here today were holding Saveno de Lellis, who arrived here from New York, on suspicion of being connected with a jewel theft in New York.

Many valuable gems were found in the arrested man's possession. While no details were obtainable, it is believed De Lellis was held in connection with the recent theft of $400,000 worth of jewels from the Caruso home.

NEW YORK, July 8.—Little hope was entertained by Enrico Caruso today that the jewels found on a steamship passenger at Naples were the gems stolen from his summer home at East Hampton several weeks ago.

Detectives working on the Caruso case were skeptical that the jewels were the property of the tenor.

Inter-Church Plan May Be Reorganized

Resolution Scores Anti-Japanese Move

HONOLULU, July 8.—A resolution protesting against the anti-Japanese movement in California was adopted yesterday at a mass meeting in the prefecture of Honolulu, Japan, according to a Tokyo cable to Nippon Jiji, a Japanese newspaper here. A copy of the resolution was sent to the American charge d'affaires with the request that he transmit it to Washington. The resolution declares the economic development of Japan residents in California is unjustly blocked by the anti-Japanese actions.

Milk Jump in State During July Forecast

SACRAMENTO, July 8.—G. B. Daniels, State Market Director, announced here that the price of milk will probably jump two cents on a quart before the end of the month. Due to the present high price of feed, the dairymen have been left with no alternative and will be forced to charge more for their product in order to survive, he said. Dairymen have practically agreed on the increase, Daniels asserted.

STATE NEWS

STUDENT IS DROWNED.
MARTINSVILLE, July 8.—Fredrick H. Zwart, 17, of Yuba City, was drowned while bathing in the Yuba river. He could not swim. He was a student in the Martinsville high school.

REDDING VISITOR DEAD.
REDDING, July 8.—As a result of a three-day "bender" on brandy, a local visitor, Louis Wilkinson, a Fourth of July celebrator, is dead here. "Coroner" Lankin found that when Wilkinson could no longer obtain the liquor he wanted, he bought the drug. Wilkinson came to Redding from Klamath Falls, Ore for the Fourth.

ADVENTISTS MEETING.
SANTA FE, July 8.—The annual conference of the Advent Christian Church of Northern California opened here with a sermon by the Rev. W. E. Snider of San Francisco. The daily program is: Morning program at 6:30, breakfast at 7, Loyal Workers' Service at 8, Victory Life Service at 9, sermon at 11, dinner at noon, Bible class, led by the Rev. A. Baker, at 1:30, supper at 7:30, open air service at 8:45; song service at 7:30, sermon at 7:45.

BROKEN NECK MENDING.
MODESTO, July 8.—Herbert D. Grundy, 26, farmer, who broke the third and fourth vertebrae of his neck in a dive in the Tuolumne river near here on July Fourth, lies with his head in a cast at the Robertson hospital in Modesto. His is the third case of broken neck to be handled at this institution this year. The first was a Portuguese—Torture—who fell off a truck on his head at Riverbank, and the next was a Turlock boy who landed on his head in a fall from a swing. The fractured necks of both of the latter have mended and they are going about as usual. Grundy will recover, declares the attending physician.

CALIFORNIA GETS BREEDERS.
MODESTO, July 8.—A. M. Bibens, president, J. L. Holmes and Harry V. Bridgford, directors of the Stanislaus County Holstein Breeders' Association, delegates to the National Holstein Association convention and exhibit at St. Louis, brought back the information that the national meeting and exhibition will be held in California in 1924. San Francisco will likely get the gathering, which will bring $500,000 in prize winners from all over the continent and $1,000,000 worth of prize winners for sale. Incidentally, California took the $500 cash prize for the highest average price for Holstein cows sold at the St. Paul exhibition, also the first individual and herd honors. A. W. Morrow of Woodland, Calif., sold four head of purebred stock for nearly $100,000. The Breeders' of Patterson sold four head for nearly $50,000.

PACIFIC, July 8.—The Poultry Producers of Central California report that there is practically no decrease in the production of eggs at this time of the year. This is due to the large number of new members who are joining the corporation. Many poultrymen who dropped out of the corporation last January have renewed their membership.

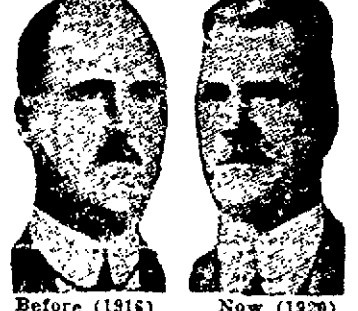

T. AND. D. HEAD TO GO AFTER STARS.
Eugene L. Perry, manager of the T. and D. Theater, leaves early next week for the south, where a "round-up" of First National stars will be his objective for the big First National Day here July 26.

Reports from the Los Angeles studios show that First National Day as planned for Oakland is getting first call in interest. Practice has begun at the various sites for the burlesque ball game here in which prominent screen comedians and the Oakland ball team will be the principals.

Perry will go south armed with the sanction and support of the First National officials to corral every big star under the First National banner and arrange for their visit to Oakland on July 26.

Among the stars, comedians and producers who will be sought are Anita Stewart, Constance Talmadge, Katherine MacDonald, Mary Pickford, Norma Talmadge, Mack Sennett, Marshall Neilan, D. W. Griffith, Fatty Arbuckle, Harold Lloyd and others.

As already outlined, the day will be given over to a parade, race at the T. and D. theater and burlesque ball game and field day. Everything will be free to the public.—Advertisement.

Cut State's Fire Loss, Rotarians Are Told

California, the greatest per capita user of electric power of any state in the Union, ranks third in the immense losses by fire of electrical origin, according to Robert L. Bellingham, of the State Industrial Accident Commission who, in an address at the Rotary Club luncheon today noon, advocated state supervision of electric installation.

Harold Oliver, president of the meeting and Newton Deprez made a five-minute business talk. Eltingham said:

"While the larger cities of the state have fairly adequate electrical inspection, the smaller industrial centers and country towns have not. We can cut fire losses due to improper electric wiring down to a minimum by taking care that measures by ordinary precautions are taken with a force so intangible and yet so powerful as electricity."

After Lions' Session If They Must Steal It

To bring the international convention of Lions Clubs to Oakland next year, the Oakland Den of Lions has increased from eight to sixteen its number of delegates to the Denver convention, July 14 to 16. A. W. Moore, vice-president of the Oakland Den, addressed the meeting yesterday, instructing delegates to bring the 1921 convention to this city by force, violence, arson or any other unlawful and felonious means. Jesse Robinson, international president of the organization, also spoke. The new delegates are: Roscoe M. Littlefield, E. F. Hutchins, Grant Miller, Oliver Kehrein, Altec Hunt, Paul Ansel, George Warnock and W. M. Daley. The representation will leave Friday for Denver. They will be the guests of President W. M. Lane of the Salt Lake ball club. They will return to Denver the following day.

EDITORIAL.
Do you realize that you should be extremely careful at the present time where you fill your prescriptions? Many articles used in prescriptions are almost unobtainable. Other articles have increased in price many, many times and are being sold in various degrees of quality. The Bowman Drug Company has a new method of purchasing directly from the manufacturers of the highest grades of all types of drugs. Irrespective of price we use the highest grades of everything. The magnitude of our prescription department, furthermore, permits us to purchase comparatively large quantities of prescription drugs, which is a factor in enabling us to secure many drugs that are difficult for prescription pharmacists to get. In addition, our buying connections with responsible firms (some of which extend over a period of 40 years) stand us in good stead and we are often allowed shipments which would not ordinarily come in us under usual business connections. Our old adage that "you are what you eat" is more important to you today than any other time of our history and nothing should be guarded with more care than a prescription upon which good health and probably a life may depend.

EXTRA FINE COOKING EXTRACTS.
Lemon, Vanilla, Nutmeg, Cloves, All-Spice, Etc.
If you are interested in cooking, you will be interested in knowing that we sell about the best lemon and vanilla extract that can be made. This extract is manufactured in our own laboratories from the finest material obtainable and is so much superior to the ordinary kind that you will wonder how you ever got along with the cheaper grades. We also carry a full line of Squibb's Extracts, such as pepper, nutmeg, cloves, etc.

SAFE COUGH SYRUP FOR YOUR BABY.
Safe Because It Contains No Narcotics
You can purchase at Bowman's a cough syrup that will be very helpful without getting at the same time a soothing syrup containing narcotics that will put him to sleep. Most cough syrups are made for adults and the narcotics contained therein are not harmful to grown people, but to give the same combination of drugs to a baby is a very different matter. If a neighbor said to you, "Oh, give the baby a small dose of morphine," you would be shocked, and yet that is what you might be doing without knowing it. If you are interested in a cough syrup free from poison and narcotics, ask us for Pine and Tar Special.

SAVE MONEY BY RENOVATING YOUR OWN HATS—IT'S EASY.
Black-Colorite, Hat Bleach or Klensol Should Be Used
The hat renovators seem to be doing a very good business, although they charge almost as much today to clean your hat as a new hat cost in the pre-war days. In most cases, however, the cost can be saved by a little home work. If you have an old straw hat, you can turn it a glossy black by coloring it with Black-Colorite, which is made for this purpose and which sells at 25c a bottle. You can also color a straw hat in various other shades by purchasing Colorite, which sells at the same price. If you wish to keep your hat white, you can get splendid results by using Bowman's Hat Bleach. Anyone can use this bleach. 20c a package. If you have an old felt

DO YOU SUCCEED IN GETTING GOOD PICTURES?
If Not Find Out Why at Bowman's. We Can Tell You
Why is it that some people are more successful in taking Kodak pictures than others? It most assuredly is not because some have better cameras, because some of the very best snap shots received in our developing department are upon films used in the most inexpensive Kodaks. The real reason for the success of most amateurs is that they study picture taking and follow instructions. Most successful amateurs also have certain necessary Kodak accessories which they use at the right time. For example, every one should have a tripod because it is almost impossible to hold a Kodak still on an exposure of greater than 1-25 of a second. In taking very close-up pictures, such as portraits, a portrait attachment should be used. These little attachments only cost 50c each. We have books which describe various conditions of light and give instructions as to how to handle your Kodak under these conditions. The members of our Kodak Department are always glad to put you right if you are not as successful as you think you ought to be.

DO YOU EVER HAVE FOUNTAIN PEN TROUBLES?
How is your fountain pen getting along? You know a fountain pen is like any other mechanical contrivance in that it gets out of order once in a while. It can be cleaned and sometimes the parts require readjusting. We have an expert in our store to do this work. equipped with all the necessary repair instruments and a full stock of Waterman parts. As agents for the Waterman Company, we carry all kinds of Waterman Pens and a wonderful assortment of pen points. If the pen point you are using does not exactly suit you, come in and see if we cannot make you happy.

AMERICAN LEGION Gossip

Oakland Post of the American Legion held its first meeting Tuesday evening in the Moose hall of Clay street, its new rendezvous. The Municipal Auditorium, where the meetings have been held since the organization of the local post, was found to be too far removed from the central part of the city to enable all of the members to attend the meetings promptly. Tuesday night's meeting was one of the largest for several months.

New interest in the work of the local post was shown at the last meeting when a committee of the whole was formed to carry out the objects of the American Legion and to follow out its principles.

Plans were put in motion at the last meeting which, if carried out by the State legislature, will bring about the construction of California timber lands. The plan was in the form of a resolution offered by the resolutions committee and asks the State legislature to enact a law prohibiting lumber companies from leaving slash lying on the ground after it has been stripped from the trees. Leavings from cut timber have been responsible for 50 per cent of the forest destruction in California for the past five years. It was pointed out in the resolution.

G. E. Price, who has held the office of secretary for the local post since its organization, tendered his resignation Tuesday night's meeting. Owing to the great amount of extra work piling up on account of the war risk insurance provisions and to the extra work due to the rapidly increasing membership of the post, Price said he was unable to give proper attention to his law practice, and therefore asked that his resignation be accepted so that he might again build up his practice, which he dropped when he donned the uniform, and which has been neglected since he took over the duties as secretary of the local post. His resignation was referred to the executive committee.

The Women's Auxiliary of the American Legion will give a theater party at the Fulton theater on Wednesday evening, July 14, as a benefit for the Oakland Post's baseball team. Tickets may be obtained at the office of the legion in the syndicate building or from any member of the Women's Auxiliary. Legion members and others who purchase tickets are requested to but then from representatives of the Women's Auxiliary. Tickets bought elsewhere are not credited to the benefit fund.

The following delegates to the State convention of the American Legion were nominated at the last meeting and will be voted upon at the next meeting, which will be a combined business and social gathering. MY HEART and MY HUSBAND

By Adele Garrison

What Midge Determined to Do. His voice was truculent, threatening. I felt my anger rise at him.

"Perhaps I would, any request of his," I said coldly, meaningly.

"A request from his attorneys is the same thing," he said in a more conciliatory manner. Evidently he did not wish to quarrel with me. That meant that I, not he, held the winning cards in the game of wits.

"I agree with you," I answered coolly.

"Then what are you waiting for?" he demanded, turning on me. "I don't see any use in delaying the game."

There was a greediness in his eyes which made me more determined than ever to give him no satisfaction concerning Mr. Stockbridge's papers.

"I would have investigated the history of Mr. George Stockbridge," I rose to my feet with decision.

"You are wasting your time," Mr. Stockbridge said curtly. "I have told you that I hold nothing but school records of Mr. Stockbridge, and those I will deliver only to an accredited representative of my principal who holds a written order in Mr. Stockbridge's own handwriting."

He thrust his jaw forward with an ugly sneer.

"I've mean that," he snarled.

"I most certainly do," I returned. "Well, you've got a nerve!" he began roughly, but I stepped to the door, flung it wide open, and bowed stiffly.

"You will pardon me, I am sure," Mr. Stockbridge, for I am too busy to be detained longer."

YOU'LL REGRET THIS

His face flushed and I saw a visible struggle with himself taking place. His thwarted vanity urged him to unpleasantness, his prudence counseled acquiescence in my dismissal. As a compromise he stalked out of the door, pausing only to say savagely:

"You'll deeply regret this, young woman before many days."

I sank into a chair as soon as the door closed behind him, completely unnerved. For not until then had I realized what his demand meant if he were not in truth one of Kenneth Stockbridge's attorneys.

Looked at from any angle, there were but two explanations of his call on me. Either he really was an accredited representative of Mr. Stockbridge—in which case I had failed my principal grievously—or else, most terrifying prospect for me, he belonged to the enemy camp, and had discovered the fact that the accused man had telephoned me at the schoolhouse but a few minutes before his wife's death.

The first alternative, much as I preferred to believe it, was put out of my mental court by my common sense. No man who had displayed as much anxiety over the secret of keeping or his personal papers as had Kenneth Stockbridge would dream of sending a messenger with no credentials for them. No "Mr. Stockbridge" must be in the employ either of the state or of Milly Stockbridge's family.

MADGE MAKES DECISION

There were but two ways that he could have discovered my possession of the private papers from the principal's desk, or by the tracing of the telephone calls, the probability that the operators had listened in on the day of Milly Stockbridge's mysterious death. I knew that unless Kenneth Stockbridge himself had lost his reason, he would never have betrayed the existence of the secret he had kept so long, the evidence of which he had entrusted to my care. Central must have "listened in" and then told all she knew. And if she had overheard the principal's call, in all probability she had heard the wild raucous rade of his wife a few minutes earlier.

Two or three days before I had seen a rat which had been troubling the chicken house, and which I had caught in a trap. The sight of the terrified creature's futile circling of the walls of the trap, and his angry bling of the wires had affected me most unpleasantly at the time. The memory of it fairly sickened me now, for I felt that I, too, was in a trap from which there was no escape.

Katie's voice called me to myself.

The Effects of Opiates.

THAT INFANTS are peculiarly susceptible to opium and its various preparations, all of which are narcotic, is well known. Even in the smallest doses, if continued, these opiates cause changes in the functions and growth of the cells which are likely to become permanent, causing unbecomingly mental persons, a craving for alcohol or narcotics in later life. Nervous diseases, such as intractable nervous dyspepsia and lack of staying powers are a result of dosing with opiates or narcotics to keep children quiet in their infancy. The rule among physicians is that children should never receive opiates in the smallest doses for more than a day at a time, and only then if unavoidable.

The administration of Anodynes, Drops, Cordials, Soothing Syrups and other narcotics to children by any but a physician cannot be too strongly decried, and the druggist should not be a party to it. Children who are ill need the attention of a physician, and it is nothing less than a crime to dose them willfully with narcotics.

Castoria contains no narcotics if it bears the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher. Genuine Castoria always bears the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher.

Artists Honored At Dinner With Dean Hart Host

As the Summer School at the University of California becomes more and more of an institution of the rank and file of the people, it is becoming in the same proportion a dominant element in the social life of the summer interregnum. Indeed, nothing else is happening of any moment around the bay more apt to happen for some weeks, except here and there a nuptial affair—since the convention has at last expired, and heaven knows a lot-down is welcome as the flowers in May after that hectic fortnight.

On Tuesday evening, Mrs. William Morris Hart, dean of the summer school, was hostess at a dinner in honor of the distinguished artists Marie Mikova, pianist, and Sascha Jacobson, violinist, both of whom are members of the summer faculty. Fourteen guests were asked to meet the musicians.

Last evening the artists gave a concert at Wheeler Hall, one of the aesthetic treats of the session, at which a fair sprinkling of Oakland and Berkeley smart sets were represented.

The brilliant reception given last week by the dean of the school, a cordial social spirit, established a time of play as well as of work, bringing together a lot of interesting people.

HUMES MOVE INTO HOME NEAR CAMP

Professor and Mrs. Samuel J. Hume have moved into a new residence on a fine old garden not far from the campus, and but a block from Mrs. Hume's studio.

As soon as the lars and penates are properly and artistically set up in the new place, to the full satisfaction of Mrs. Hume, the will go to Santa Barbara to join her brilliant husband, who is putting on "The Quest," a pageant written by Sydney Howard. It was produced successfully in the East some time ago, but under another name.

Irving Pichel, the talented chap who achieved honors at Harvard for his acting and stage management that later led him into big things in New York, Boston and St. Paul, is taking the lead in the pageant. It is to be staged Thursday, Friday and Saturday, the 15th, 16th and 17th, with all of the heat ton of Santa Barbara, Montecito and the exclusive back country to furnish the "gallery."

CHICAGO GIRL TO WED

St. Mark's Episcopal church, Berkeley, will be the scene of the wedding of Miss Virginia Thomas of Chicago and Dennis Arnold, the celebrated pianist, who is the son of a very famous family.

The service will be performed by the Rev. William A. Thomas, brother of the bride, a missionary who has for some years been in Alaskan service. The bride, who too has seen service amongst the Eskimoes—visiting her brother last year, when she met young Arnold, also on a tour of the north country—will be given away by Governor R. A. Rigney of Alaska.

To attend the wedding, Mrs. Thomas, mother of the groom, and Miss Lulu Thomas, a sister, came west, accompanying the bride. She will attend her sister and Dwight Baldwin will serve the groom.

The party is at the Whitecourt, Berkeley, where Mrs. Dennis Arnold and her son make their home. Arnold is in his senior year in college. The young people will establish themselves at the hotel after a brief honeymoon.

EASTBAY GUESTS ABOARD SHIP

During the tarrying among us of the battleships and destroyers, Admiral and Mrs. Joseph Lee Tamm have chartered a group of debutantes almost daily at some sort of a function aboard ship, the New Mexico and the Fuller close rivals for the attention of the "deb" set.

Among the girls who made up the group were the Misses Elizabeth Magee, Vere de Vere Adams, Elita Adams, Claire Knight, Ernestine Adams, Rose Mella, Schatze Adams and Alice Regua.

Honolulu is the objective of swarms of summer pleasure-seekers. Among the Eastbay folk who will play about Waikiki until seized with a desire to return are the Misses Marion Mitchell, Janet Weeks and Charlotte Grouse, who will visit friends during their stay.

They are planning to sail on the 14th.

Packers, Sugar Firm Indicted at Boston

BOSTON, July 8.—Indictments charging profiteering in food were reported here by a federal grand jury against E. C. Swift & Co., Armour & Co., N. E. Hollis & Co. and the Independent Sugar company of this city. The indictments are the first to be returned in New England by a federal grand jury for alleged food profiteering.

Redwood Will Ring to Foresters' Glee

Oakland and San Francisco Foresters will hold their annual picnic at Pinehurst Park, when Magnolia and Defiance camps gather at the Redwood Canyon resort next Sunday. There will be 500 in the party from both sides of the bay.

For the teachers, better pay; for the children, better education; for Oakland, better citizens.

RICHMOND'S P. O. NEAR FIRST CLASS

The Richmond office of The Oakland Tribune is at 1015 Macdonald avenue; telephone Richmond 372.

RICHMOND, July 8.—The Richmond postoffice came within $200 of reaching the $40,000 stamp sales total for the past fiscal year, required to make it a first-class office. Stamp sales actually exceeded $40,000, but the government made certain deductions in accordance with war-time revenue legislation that reduced the amount accredited on classification to approximately $38,000.

The second time the local postoffice has lost a first-class rating through war-time revenue deductions, the $40,000 total stamp sales figure was exceeded the year before. It is believed the next year will put the office in first class regardless of deductions that may be made.

Salaries of the postmaster, his assistant and fifteen clerks and carriers were increased at the beginning of this fiscal year from $150 to $200 a year each. The total increase for the office amounts to nearly $4,000 a year. This includes both automatic increases and increases granted by recent legislation.

BUILDING PERMITS PROHIBITED
Building permits for the year of 1919-1920 were nearly double in value those of any previous year in the history of the city. It is shown by a comparative table of figures prepared by Building Inspector Lambert Wierda. During the year just closed Wierda issued a total of 450 permits for buildings with a total value of $824,588. The best previous record was for the year of 1917-1918, when permits totaled 484,542 in value. The totals of the preceding years were: 1914-15, $221,948; 1915-16, $273,943; 1916-17, $419,551; 1917-18, $429,205; 1918-19, $419,117. Permits for the month of June, just past, totaled $67,300.

BOWLERS PLAY TONIGHT
The Donohue All Star bowlers of Oakland are to meet the Richmond Elks in a special match game. The Richmond Elks will travel to San Jose Friday to meet the Elks team there in a scheduled game in the Elks League. The team will be composed of Hamlin, Bevan, Phelps, Wilson, F. Brown and Levy.

Pleasanton Board Revises Broad Law
PLEASANTON, July 8.—The board of town trustees Tuesday night decided to revoke the present broad ordinance and pass a new ordinance to conform with ordinances elsewhere in the county.

The American Legion post was given permission to hold a dance September 8. The Pleasanton post tendered a vote of thanks to the council for permission given the post to meet in the town hall twice a month.

A resolution was received from the town trustees of Livermore endorsing the State highway plan which would connect this valley with the coast route. It was filed.

It was decided to take on which individual property owners the matter of installing surface and fixing gutters. The city committee was ordered to buy a new flag for the town hall. Town Engineer Hugh Sinclair and Nightwatchman Anton Peterson were each given a two-weeks vacation.

Mob Kills Convict Who Attacked Girl
TELLINGTON, Mo., July 8.—This section of Reynolds county was quiet today, following twenty-four hours of intense excitement during which Fred Canfax, negro, was shot to death by a mob. The negro, who was the father of a young girl, had been charged with molesting the daughter of Frank Simmons, a well-known farmer. The girl, a rural lotter carrier, was laid about two miles from here late Tuesday and attacked. A mob of about thirty men, some of whom were armed, started immediately.

Feeling ran high that the convict was immediately taken to Jefferson City penitentiary to prevent possible clashes between whites and blacks. The mob, for Canfax, was confined all night. Late yesterday he was located near Canfax. Without any preliminary the mob riddled his body with bullets as he attempted to evade them.

Grip of Hook's Mud on Transport Is Broken
PORT ANGELES, Wash., July 8.—The transport South Bend, grounded in a fox off Angeles Hook Tuesday, is free and will continue its voyage to Alaska today. She was pulled off the mud by the cable hauler.

Vallejo Druggist in Auto Wreck, Hurt
VALLEJO, July 8.—Word was received here today that A. A. Knott, a Vallejo druggist, was injured yesterday when his automobile was crowded off the grade near Vallejo in the Lake Tahoe country. He was bruised and cut, but Mrs. Knott escaped with a shock.

Governor Cantu Is to Shift Capital
MEXICALI, Lower Calif., July 8.—Governor Estelban Cantu of the Northern District of Lower California announced today he would move to Mexicali, on the Pacific coast of the territory, to establish his summer capital. He plans to return to Mexicali about September 1.

OPPOSES RETIREMENT
STOCKTON, July 8.—Senator George P. Ryan of Stockton is opposing the retirement of the carrier on Stockton I. P. D. No. 2 will be 20 years of age August 23, and in conformity with section 6 of the act for the retirement of employees in the United States civil service, acting Postmaster Becker served notice today that he would be retired. He is opposing his retirement.

WANT ANNEAUX
LODI, July 8.—Following the receipt of a petition from the trustees of the Lodi union high school who wish to annex the Lodi and Hewitt school districts, the board of supervisors has set August 3 at 11 o'clock as the time for the hearing in the matter.

TWO GO TO JAIL FOR SIGN THEFT
LIVERMORE, July 8.—H. H. Fisher and P. Anderson, giving their residence as San Francisco, were sentenced to 25 and 30 days, respectively, in the county jail yesterday afternoon by Justice of the Peace G. S. Fitzgerald. They were arrested by Deputy Sheriff L. E. Wright, who caught them cutting down a large canvas banner advertising the recent Rodeo and extending across First street. They put the big canvas in their waiting automobile, and then the officer arrested them. "It was all an innocent joke," the prisoners told the judge, but the judge concluded they were "only joking."

ALTOUS FINED
Only three violators of the motor vehicle laws appeared in the local court Tuesday. Their cases were disposed of as follows: Joseph Rogers of Santa Rita, fined $5, no lights; William Oltman of San Francisco, fined $2 for speeding; R. A. Loucks Jr. of Berkeley, fined $12 for speeding.

HUMOR PATHOS ROMANCE O. HENDY Story a day

THE HAND THAT RILES THE WORLD
Copyright, 1920, by Doubleday, Page & Co., published by Special arrangement with the Wheeler Syndicate, Inc.

"Many of our great men," said I (apropos of many things), "have declared that they owe their success to the aid and encouragement of some brilliant woman."

"I know," said Jeff Peters. "I've read in history and mythology about Joan of Arc and Mme. Vaie and Mrs. Caude and Eve and other noted females of the past. But, in my opinion, the women of today is of little use in politics or business. What's she best in, anyway?—men make the best cooks, milliners, nurses, housekeepers, stenographers, clerks, hairdressers and laundresses. About the only job left that a woman can best a man in is female impersonation in vaudeville."

"I would have thought," said I, "that occasionally, anyhow, you would have found the wit and intuition of woman valuable to you in your lines of business."

"Now, wouldn't you," said Jeff, with an emphatic nod—"wouldn't you have imagined that? But a woman is an absolutely unreliable partner in any straight swindle. She's liable to turn honest on you when you are depending upon her the most. I tried 'em once."

"Bill Humble, an old friend of mine in the Territories, conceived the illusion that he wanted to be appointed United States Marshal. At that time me and Andy was doing a square, legitimate business of selling walking canes, and he turned up to your mouth a half pint of good rye whiskey would tricking down your throat to reward you for your act of intelligence. The deputies was annoying me and Andy some, and when Bill spoke to me about his officious aspirations, I saw how the appointment as Marshal might help along the firm of Peters & Tucker."

"Jeff," says Bill to me, "you are a man of learning and education, besides having the latest news and information concerning not only rudiments but facts and attainments."

"I do," says I, "and I have never regretted it."

for. Andy had the artistic temper, which is not to be judged as a preacher's or moral man's is by purely commercial defections. So we accepted Bill's offer, and strikes out for Washington."

"Says I to Andy, when we get located at a hotel on South Dakota Avenue, C. S. W. 'Now Andy, for the first time in our lives we've got to do a real dishonest act. Lobbying something we've never been used to, but we must to introduce a little foul play and chicanery, but in a disorderly and heinous piece of malpractice. I don't like it, but I must do it. I propose, says I, that we have over that plan. He is the chairman of the national campaign committee, get a receipt on the President's desk and let us have a word with him. The President is a man who would appreciate a candidate who talked the scheme over with the clerks. I'll give that plan up. He told us that there was only one way to get an appointment in Washington, and that was to lobby."

"He gave us the address of one he recommended, a Mrs. Avery, who he said was a very capable and diplomatic rings and circles."

"The next morning at 10 o'clock me and Andy called at her hotel, and she was shown up to her reception room. This Mrs. Avery was a social and a balm to the eyesight. She had hair the color of the back of a twenty dollar gold certificate, blue eyes and a system of beauty that would make the girl on the west coast to help me put this thing through the Whitehouse Wigwam of the Great Father of the most famous of the Pennsylvania Railroad."

"Well, I talked to Andy about it, and he liked the idea immensely. He was a man of an involved nature. He was never content to plod along, as I was, selling to the necessity of a combination steak, shoe horn, marcel waver, monkey wrench, file, potato masher and Maltin in Parvo tuning."

"Jeff," says I to me, "you are a man of learning and education, besides having the latest news and information concerning not only rudiments but facts and attainments."

"I do," says I, "and I have never regretted it."

"Those western appointments," says she, "are easy. Let me see, says she, who could put that through for us. No use fooling with Territorial delegates. I guess, says I, that Senator Snider would be about the man. He's from somewhere in the West. Let's see how he stands on my private menu card. She takes some papers out of a pigeon-hole with the letter 'S' over it."

"Yes," says she, "he's marked with a star; that means 'ready to serve.' Now, let's see. 'Age 55; married twice. Previous wives: blonde, blonde, blonde, blonde and blonde. Tolstoi, poker and stoved terrapin; sentimental at third bottle of wine.' Yes," she goes on, "I am sure you can have your friend, Mr. Snider, appointed Minister to Brazil."

"Humble," says I, "and United States Marshal was the berth."

"Oh, yes," says Mrs. Avery. "I have so many deals of this sort I sometimes get them confused. Give me all the memoranda you have of the case, Mr. Peters, and come back in four days. I think it can be arranged by then."

"So me and Andy goes back to our hotel and waits. Andy wakes up and down and chews the left end of his mustache."

"A woman of high intellect and perfect beauty is a rare thing," says he.

"As rare," says I, "as an omelet made from the eggs of the fabulous bird known as the epidemic," says I. "A woman like that," says Andy, "ought to lead a life of the highest positions of opulence and fame."

"I know," says I, "that some times a woman seems to step out into the kaleidoscope light as the charge d'affaires of her man's political job. But how did it come, says I, that you have a neat little berth somewhere as a foreign consul of record to Afghanistan or lookkeeper on the Delaware and Hudson Canal? One day a man finds his wife putting on her overboots and three months' supply of bird seed (go to the canary's cage, 'Stout Falls' he asks with a kind of hopeful light in his eye. 'No, Arthur,' says she, 'Washington. We've wasted here,' says she. 'You ought to be today Extraordinary to the Court of St. Bridget or Head Porter of the Island of Porto Rico. I'm going to see about it.'"

"Then this lady," says I to Andy, "moves against the case at Washington with her baggage and munitions, consisting of five dozen indiscriminating letters to the President, a letter to the President when she was in a letter of introduction from King Leopold to the Smithsonian Institution, and a pink silk costume with canary colored spats."

"Well, and then what?" I goes. "She has the letters printed in the evening papers that match her costume. She lectures at an informal tea given in the parlour of the R. T. & O. Depot and then calls on the President. The ninth Assistant Secretary of Commerce and Labor, the first aide-de-camp of the Blue Room and an unidentified colored man are waiting there to grasp her by the hands and feet. They carry her out to S. V. B. street and leave her on a cellar door. That ends it. The next time we hear of her she is writing postcard cards to the Chinese Minister asking him to get Arthur a job in a tea store."

"Then," says Andy, "you don't think Mrs. Avery will land the Marshalship for Bill?"

"I do not," says I. "I do not wish to be a septic, but I doubt if she can do as well as you and me could have done."

"I don't agree with you," says Andy. "I'll bet you she does. I'm proud of having a higher opinion of the talent and the powers of negotiations of ladies."

"I was back at Mrs. Avery's hotel at the time she appointed. She was looking pretty and fine enough, as far as that went, to make any man let her name every officer in the country. I hadn't much faith in looks, so I was certainly surprised when she pulled out a document with the crest seal of the United States on it, and 'William Henry Humble' in a fine, big hand on the back."

"You might have had it the next day, boys," says Mrs. Avery smiling. "I had the slightest trouble in getting it," says she. "I just asked for it." "What's all. Now, I'd like to talk to you a while," she goes on, "but I'm awfully busy, and I know you'll excuse me. I've got an Ambassadorship, two Consulships and a dozen other minor appointments to look after. I can hardly find time to sleep at all. You'll give me compliments to Mr. Humble when you get home, of course."

"I had a little trouble about it," says I. "I had to go to the edge of Arkansas I got out Bill's appointment and looked it over, and then I handed it to Andy to read. Andy read it, and didn't add any remarks to my silence."

"The paper was for Bill, all right, and a genuine document," says I. "I appointed him postmaster of Dade City, Fla."

"Me and Andy got off the train at Little Rock and sent Bill's appointment to him by mail. Then we struck northeast toward Lake Superior. After a few days Bill Humble after

FEW BOURBOONS LINGERING YET

SAN FRANCISCO, July 8.—Marking the more or less leisurely departure of the convention delegates, many of whom will tour California before boarding the limited for eastern and northern homes, are expressions of pleasure at the manner in which the "big show" was handled and the occasional hints as to plans for the fall campaign.

It has been made fairly certain that Gavin McNab, San Francisco representative of the Wilson administration, will be general manager of election activities on the Pacific coast and will have a voice in the campaign direction for the entire west. That much has been divulged by T. A. Cochran, national committee publicity man, who will also be McNab in the selection of a publicity man for the section.

Associate publicity headquarters will be established in Portland and Seattle, with the main headquarters in this city. Nothing is to be done toward mapping out the plans until after the meeting of the national committee in Ohio, July 15.

The organization of western delegates, perfected for the convention, is to be made permanent with an object of presenting a solid western front when western projects are before Congress.

Senator Hiram Johnson has added his words of praise at the way the convention was handled. "I have talked with many newspaper correspondents who occupy the press galleries at Washington, and I found that without exception they were delighted with their stay in California and with the generous and hospitable manner in which they were received and cared for. It was a splendid thing for the city and taught the nation that San Francisco is the best place in the whole country in which to hold a convention."

The great bulk of the delegates have left for home. They began leaving last Friday night and the throng gradually has been melting away until but a few of the leaders are left. Detours to Yosemite, Tahoe, Del Monte, Santa Barbara and elsewhere were arranged by many.

Among those still here are J. Hamilton Lewis of Illinois; former Governor George Hodges of Kansas; Secretary of Agriculture Meredith Secretary of State Colby; Senator Owen of Oklahoma; David R. Francis, formerly governor of Missouri; Stuart G. Gibbons, manager of the McAdoo boom; Charles C. Carlin, manager of the Palmer campaign; Lee Cruik, former governor of Oklahoma; Norman E. Mack and Governor Al Smith of New York.

U. of C. Student Asks Allowance of Estate
NEW YORK, July 8.—Moses Aronson, 18, student at the University of California, today petitioned Surrogate Cohalan for an allowance of $300 a year out of his late father's estate, saying that unless he got it he would have to "ride the roads back to California and wash dishes in a restaurant to pay for his education." The petition was returned.

Aronson is listed in the directory of letters and science last semester, fornia as a freshman in the college of letters and science last semester. His address was given at 1805 Euclid street, where he is stated to be left for the East at the end of the college term.

Metson Demurrer Hearing Is Put Over

CALIF. MAN AND WIFE ARE AMAZED
"As both my wife and myself have taken Taulac with fine results, I am glad to tell everybody about it," said a doctor here. "I have known a middle-aged man, living at 25 Hollar street, San Francisco, recently."

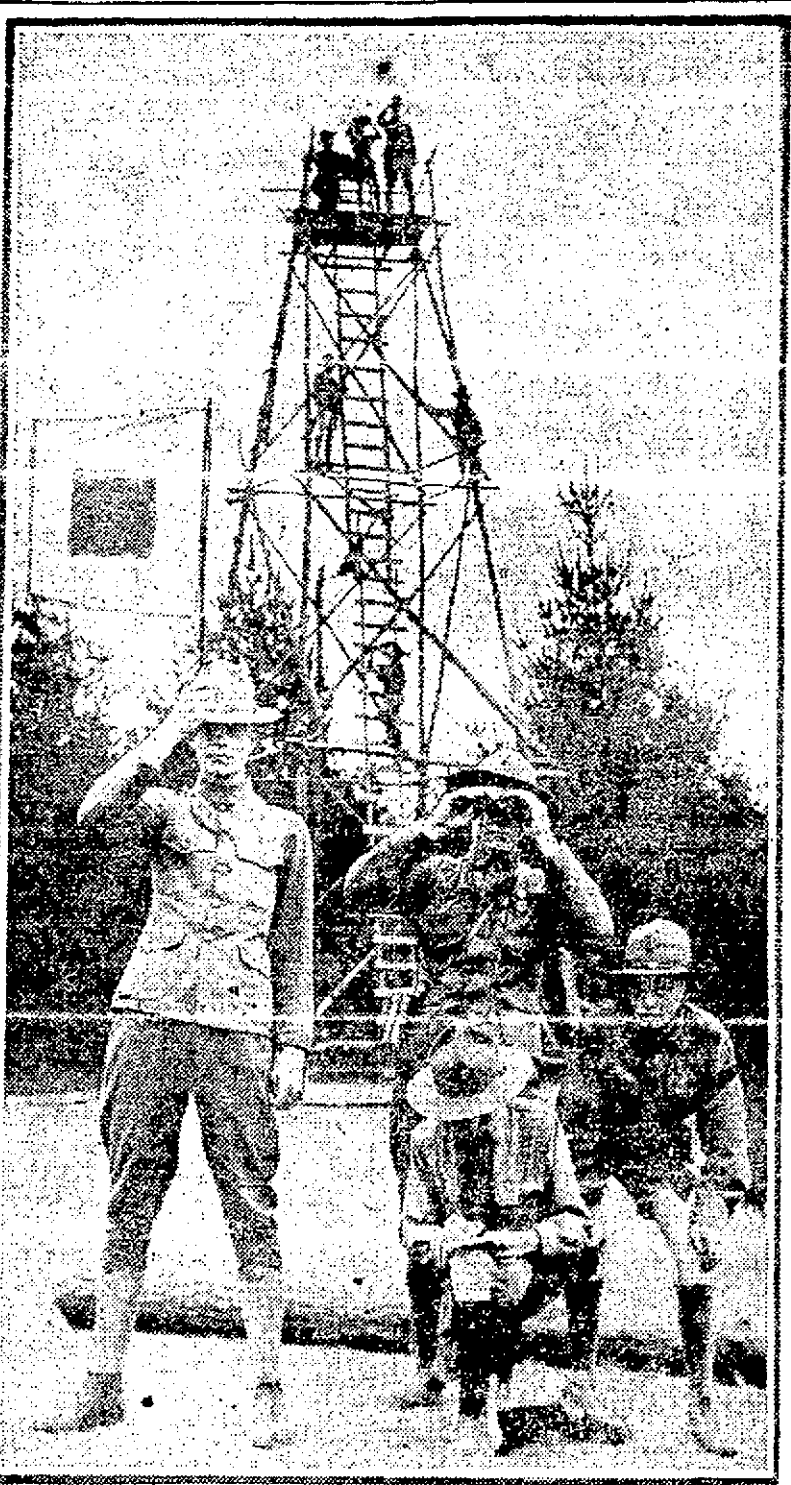

He had suffered six years from a bad case of indigestion. After every meal was formed on his stomach and bloated him up, causing intense suffering. He was unable to eat and could never get a good night's sleep and was so weak it was all he could do to get up in the morning. He tried all kinds of medicines and even spent some time in a hospital, but without getting any better. He was at a loss to know what to do next.

As I remembered reading so many splendid testimonials about Taulac, I decided to try it. I bought a bottle and it seemed to take hold of her case at once. After the first bottle, I saw the man getting better. She has now taken five bottles and the change in her health is astonishing. She just seems to have been made young again. She says that she has never felt a day and nothing hurts her. She is free from nervousness and sleep at night. She is strong and well and she does her household work with ease and in fact she seems to be in as good health as she ever was in her life.

Seeing how Taulac restored my wife's health, I decided to try it myself. Being in a run-down condition, and it has built me up wonderfully. In view of what Taulac has done for me, I feel I can't say too much for it. It is certainly a great medicine.

Taulac is sold in San Francisco and around by The Owl Drug Company. Sole Agent—Advertisement.

Boy Scouts Wigwag News of Camp Life to Tribune Tower

Signal tower built by Scouts at their camp in Diamond Canyon with signaller at work. Scout signaller in the foreground are (left to right), ROBERT LAWRENCE, HAROLD CHASTAIN, JACKSON PALMER, RICHARD MCINTYRE.

Demonstration of Proficiency in Signalling Is Made in Class Being Trained in Diamond Canyon.

BY WIGWAG SERVICE.

SPECIAL TO THE TRIBUNE.

CAMP SHOOK, July 8.—Wigwag tent was awarded first place in many tent inspection were this morning. The tent is occupied by Fred Sibley, George Wright, Curtis Day, Horton MacDonald, Ray Kennedy, Richard McIntyre and Kent J. McInerney.

Company B won the enthusiastic drill this morning. Captain J. O'Connor commands the winning company.

Announcement of orderly appointments for the day was made this morning as follows: Lloyd Davis, Floyd Gerdner, regimental orderlies, and Mervin Smith, battalion orderly. Awards are made by messengers of dress.

To demonstrate the proficiency of the class in wigwag signalling being conducted by C. A. McKibben, U. S. N., at the Boy Scout camp in Diamond Canyon, the foregoing message of 30 words was signalled from the observation tower at the scout camp—Camp Shook—to the tower of the TRIBUNE Building, a distance of more than five miles as the crow flies.

The two signallers who sent the message at the camp were Jackson Palmer and Robert Lawrence. The receivers at the TRIBUNE Building were Richard McIntyre, champion signaller of the local scout council; Harold Chastain and Louis Vincent.

THESE PASS TESTS
Here are the names of other scouts at the camp who have already passed their test as first-class signallers, which means that they are able to send and receive by flag signals at the rate of 25 letters a minute: R. Bailey, George Plunkett, R. Fred Sibley, C. Day, R. Frige, R. Spink, H. J. McInerney, R. Wolfskil, J. Herbert and George Forehand.

Everything in the signalling test conducted by the scouts today reflects their progress in "scoutmanship" and that is how the boys did when they started out to get the message. At the camp they used the compass to get the exact direction of the TRIBUNE building from their camp. It is east northeast by north, one point east, according to the report of a little fellow who was detailed to make the observation—and then used their compass again at the building to locate the tower.

Nothing like Pinta Bito-Phosphate to put on firm, healthy flesh and to increase strength, vigor and nerve force.

The average person is beginning to realize more and more that the lack of physical strength and nerve exhaustion (frequently evidenced by excessive "thins") are the direct cause not only of the failure to succeed in life's struggle for the necessities of existence, but also for the handicap in one's social aspirations. Compare the thin, sickly, angular

At the seaside, too, the plump, well-rounded figure is most admired.

That millions of people are conscious of this handicap is evident from the continued appearance of newspapers and magazines of many different kinds, proposing various remedies in food or medicine or exercise, either of which might or might not be appropriate for a given case.

Anchovies, however, agree that healthy nerve tissue is absolutely essential to a strong, robust body and mind. Weak nerves, while indicated by a multitude of different symptoms, more immediately and generally result in lack of energy, listlessness, irritability, depression, etc., which conditions gradually consume the healthy flesh, leaving ugly hollows, a flat chest, bony neck and scrawny arms and legs.

Our highest goal more phosphate than most of them are able to extract from the foods we eat nowadays, and many opinions affirm that there is nothing which may be taken into the human system that so effectively supplies this deficiency as the pure anchovy phosphate known as Bito-Phosphate and sold by good druggists everywhere.

The essential phosphate (food element) in Bito-Phosphate assimilated by the nerve cells should soon produce a pleasing change in nervous energy and hence increased vitality and strength. With the burdens of nervousness, depression, lack of energy, etc., lifted, normal weight and attractive, healthy and ruddy glow of health replaces the former picture of skin and bone.

CAUTION: While Bito-Phosphate is unsurpassed for the relief of nervousness, general debility, etc., those taking it who do not desire to put on flesh should use extra care in avoiding fat-producing foods.—Advertisement.

COMPASS IS USED
Edwin C. Perkins, construction in charge of the camp during the summer, said that the boys had been using the compass to get the direction from the camp to the TRIBUNE building and reverse it when we get down there. And that is how the boys did when

FEDERAL BOARD HERE FOR QUIZ

SAN FRANCISCO, July 8.—With Senator Phelan and Governor Stephens among the hundreds of witnesses to be heard and with the avowed purpose of investigating the Japanese problem on the Pacific coast, the congressional committee on immigration and naturalization will meet and organize for its labors in San Francisco tomorrow. Sessions are to be held in San Francisco, Sacramento, Fresno and other cities during the next three weeks.

The committee arrived in the city yesterday and found applications to testify from more than one hundred citizens waiting. Prominent landowners and a number of Japanese are among those who have asked to be heard. The San Francisco meetings will be held in the federal building and will be open to the public. The committee is headed by Congressman Albert Johnson of Washington, and its members are: Walter N. Valle, Colorado; John C. Kleczka, Wisconsin; John E. Raker, California; T. J. Wilson, Louisiana; E. Sabath, Illinois; John C. Box, Texas; and J. W. Taylor, Tennessee. Its findings will aid in formulating amendments to the new naturalization and immigration bills which are to come before congress.

HOTEL CLERK ARRESTED.
Wanted in Stockton on the charge of obtaining money under false pretenses, J. P. Cusledge, a clerk at the Hotel Grellin, was arrested by Joseph Swann and Jack Collier, deputy sheriffs, and is being held in jail.

THIS HIGH MARK PROUD ONE—FOR SAN FRANCISCO

LOS ANGELES, July 8.—Los Angeles has stolen more honors from San Francisco. In the twelve months, ending June 30, more of its automobiles have been stolen than in San Francisco, more than twice as many arrests of all kinds have been made, three times as many bunks games have been exposed and nearly six times as many traffic accidents have occurred, according to figures compiled today by the police department.

"Mother Is Dying," Message for Son

A dying mother's appeal for her "wandering boy" to return home was made to the police here today in the search for Fred Todd, 16-year-old son of B. B. Todd, shoe dealer, at 5208 Monticello avenue, Los Angeles. Todd told the police his wife was dying from grief because of the lost boy and said that he had spent a small fortune searching from city to city for the youth. He said he had traced young Todd from a Tacoma lumber camp to the shipyards here. Todd is 5 feet 10 inches tall and of dark complexion.

Driver of Truck 13 Badly Hurt at Fire

SAN FRANCISCO, July 8.—Harry Howard, driver of truck 13, San Francisco fire department, is suffering from possible internal injuries as a result of falling from a ladder last night at a fire in the Phoenix building, 223 Grant avenue. The fire loss was about $30,000.

IN FAVOR OF CHARTER LAW

Commissioner of Public Health and Safety Morse of Oakland has referred to a decision of the California Court of Appeals as being a "public calamity." The action of the court which provoked this astounding criticism by a public official was in upholding the charter law of the city of Oakland. The Court of Appeals handed down a decision that the action of the civil service commission in reinstating a police officer which Mr. Morse had discharged, on grounds which the court considered "flimsy and unsupported," must be respected, and that the officer must be restored to his civil service rank and position.

The commissioner's view of the high court's determination of the law is both ridiculous and unbecoming in a public official. Whatever may be the personal disappointments, it should always be cause for deep gratification when laws enacted by the people are confirmed by the courts. It is likewise cause for rejoicing when any official who stands against the law is rebuked by the courts.

Quite aside from the merits of any controversy between Commissioner Morse and a police officer, the only thing in the nature of a "public calamity" is the premeditated and persistent plot of Commissioners Morse, Edwards and Soderberg, and City Attorney Hagau to break down the civil service system in Oakland, to rob it of its powers, to destroy it as a safeguard created by the people to protect them against the vice of political patronage in municipal offices.

The Court of Appeals has taken the side of the people and the law, against the politicians. Its decisions ought to be respected.

COMPLIANCE NECESSARY

Another serious talk is in progress between representatives of the Allied governments and of the German government. The subject engaging attention just at this hour is the clause in the Versailles peace treaty requiring the disarmament of the German military machine, the reduction of the army to 100,000 men and the destruction of all war equipment and material over a reasonable amount needed for the maintenance of the armed force Germany is permitted by the treaty to have.

Germany has committed her most serious and inexcusable violation of the treaty in erasing this provision. It is in an entirely different category from the reparations question. In the latter Germany might urge that the demanded amounts were excessive and that it was impossible at present to meet them; but disarmament and reduction of the armed forces to the strength provided for in the peace treaty was in the financial and economic interest of the German people. It was a way to reduce on a large scale the expenses of the government and at the same time to release from military service several hundred thousand men for productive work.

Under the domination of the militarists, or at least out of a faithfulness to the idea of the militarists, Germany has tried to evade the military clauses of the treaty. She has resorted to palpable subterfuges, to the flimsy device of merely changing the designations of military organizations. Instead of retaining only 2000 machine guns, she is charged with now possessing 50,000;
 she has over 200,000 men under arms; over 12,000 pieces of artillery, including several thousand pieces of prohibited large calibre, and several million rifles.

It must be assumed that the Allies are entirely honest when they say they do not desire further to invade German territory. Their economic and domestic situations at home require that they relieve themselves of the burden of maintaining a military force on German soil as soon as possible. But they cannot take the short cut to such saving. The German menace must first be removed. And if the Berlin government does not at once take steps to comply with the military clauses of the peace treaty, military measures to enforce the provisions must be contemplated.

As Mr. Lloyd George emphasized at the preliminary conference at Spa, there are two menaces to European peace. One is the danger that the Prussian and military parties will seize control and assume a hostile attitude toward France, Belgium and Poland, and the other is that the Bolsheviks will seize the government and undertake an offensive, though for a different purpose. Both these dangers can be dissipated by destruction or surrender of surplus military supplies in Germany.

Unless the treaty terms are complied with in this respect, and this section of the treaty is easiest to meet, the Allies ought not waste much time in further parleying or reliance upon unreliable German promises. Apparently they do not intend to do so.

BRYAN OUT AGAIN

Mr. Bryan's latest elimination, his removal from a position of large influence in the councils of the Democratic party, seems to be definite and final. He has been defeated and ignored before, but never in so sweeping and convincing fashion
 as at the San Francisco convention.

In the week of his adventure to dictate the action of the Democratic convention, Mr. Bryan finds nothing to solace his sense of injury and outrage. In the first place, the platform committee ignored every proposition he offered; it rejected his "dry" plank and paid no attention to his appeal against an evasive silence on the prohibition question. On the floor of the convention the delegates, in overwhelming, all but uniform, voice rejected the same proposition. They turned down his dry plank, his League of Nations, anti-military training, and government bulletin planks. By their decisive and unmistakable action they turned their backs on Mr. Bryan and accepted without qualification the counsel of President Wilson in the drafting of the platform.

All this was done in a manner to make the subjection of Mr. Bryan painfully obvious. Senator Carter Glass of Virginia, the President's leading spokesman, stated that the only efforts at intimidation before the resolutions committee were made by Mr. Bryan, who threatened to take the issues between him and the President's crowd to the convention. Senator Glass called attention to the fact that this challenge had been accepted, and that he was on the platform to answer Mr.
 Bryan. The convention was thus left no choice but to decide between Wilson and Bryan, and it turned down the Nebraskaan.

After his fight to have a hand in building the party platform, Mr. Bryan tried to eliminate certain men from consideration for the presidential nomination. He was against Governor Cox because he considered the Ohioan as being "wet."
 He made no bones about his opposition and let it be understood that his dislike of Governor Cox was uncompromising.

But the convention nominated Cox and thus again displayed its contempt for the counsel of the dry advocate of the party. Governor Cox was not the administration's choice for the nomination, on the contrary, the Wilson forces were leagued against him, his main and most effective support outside his own State coming from the New York and New Jersey wets. This revealed the defiance of Mr. Bryan as a pure free will offering, reflecting only that the Democratic party as represented in this national convention was tired of Mr. Bryan and cared nothing for his advice or other contributions.

If these events left any doubt as to the final fall of Bryan, the latter's action would seem to remove them. He has assumed the pose of a man who recognizes that he is through as a significant influence in his party. He states that the whole world knows what he thinks about Cox—that he is unacceptable to him. He has offered no assurances of support for the ticket, the sure sign that a party leader is no longer entitled to consideration by his party and that he does not expect it. From his announcement it appears that Mr. Bryan realizes that his political future lies upon the Chautauqua stage.

This repudiation of Bryan is a slap at the dry element in the party. The Nebraskaan has many followers left him. What will they think of the action of the convention and the Cox-Roosevelt ticket?

The story from Los Angeles to the effect that Mr. John D. Rockefeller, Jr., who is visiting in that city, is unable to obtain gasoline to continue his motor tour, would be pleasant reading to many persons if it did not meeting doubting ears.
 As it is, it must be regarded as an amiable romance for advertising purposes. If Mr. Rockefeller can't get any gasoline in Los Angeles, it is because the real estate operators have bought it all up or the result of a plot among the hotels to keep him in the city of long reach a few days longer.

The cartoon on this page today depicts a story of more than passing interest. Retention of the control of one of the great political parties by President Wilson for another four years might not have brought misfortune to the country, but again it is impossible to tell what might have followed. His hard and dominating methods, unmindful of the rights and privileges and possible contributions to the public welfare of the coordinate legislative branch of the government, will pass without much regret.

In the last ten years the population of Lassen county has increased from 3705 to 8507, or by 77.2 percent, and that of Sierra county has decreased from 2315 to 1783, or by 56.5 percent.
 These figures represent graphically the increase of lumbering operations in Lassen county and the falling off in the gold mining industry in Sierra.

NOTES and COMMENT

As we come up for breath from the engulfing political flood we are confronted, among others, with a despatch to the effect that Okatoek has had a $1,000,000 fire. Perhaps thankfulness is due that much more of the universe did not burn up while so many were looking so intently the other way.

There is no rush for home on the part of delegates, according to railroad men. Naturally there wouldn't be. California does not disclose itself as a good place to get away from. Many of the visitors are going to stay awhile, now they are here,
 and see some sights that are worth seeing.

News of a train bearing the New Jersey delegation in a train wreck.
 The New Jersey delegation has been in some kind of difficulty ever since it began to function. Governor Edwards was unable to join it and thus escaped dangers, if he did not dis-step disappointments.

William Jennings Bryan has not relaxed his habit of keeping them guessing. He refuses to say whether he will emerge from his tent or remain silent within it. One way to draft him would be to consolidate the Democratic campaign effort with Chautauqua.

Things are relaxing in Mexico. A despatch states that President de Huerta has abolished the moving picture censorship, and announced that hereafter that governmental function will be exercised to foster rather than retard the industry.

While there is considerable joking about the transition from a beverage with a punch to water, there are signs that water is emerging from the common status that it has always been in. A despatch states that a water famine threatens Chicago. Considering the eighteenth amendment and everything, what will the poor folks do?

George E. Brennan of Chicago is hailed as the "new uncrowned king" of Chicago Democracy, the veritable successor of Roger Sullivan. It is claimed for him that he pulled the wires that killed off McAdoo and made the nomination of Cox possible. Even in a regular republic it is possible to hail the king.

Two facts regarding the next President of the United States are settled: He will be an Ohioan and a newspaperman. Predecessors have been the former, but to date none has been the latter.

In nominating a Roosevelt for vice-president they may seek to reverse the adage about there being nothing in a name, and trust to luck that an exception will now be proved. But it will be made plain before the campaign is over that a fifth cousin is not near enough to shine in the reflected glory of a great personality.

Mr. McAdoo expresses satisfaction that he (escaped) the nomination.
 But he was astonishingly supine when the catastrophe was most imminent. The disaster might have overtaken him because of such supinence.

There is a more general feeling than usual that California, a state that needs protection and that naturally should be in favor of Republican policies, should increase its representation in Congress. A sign of this is the action of the stockmen and farmers of Lake county in endorsing Euclid Howard for Congress.

Essay from the Bakersfield Californian on straw: "The Literary Diggest's straw vote showed that Edwards was coming strong. It is said that he has a brother in this state who was sure of his brother's nomination. Depending on a rye straw vote is even worse than depending on just a straw vote."

The Cleveland Revue explains the difference: "In this country the President does his running before election, whereas in Mexico he does it at variable times afterward."

SPIRIT OF THE STATE PRESS
 "Why not a woman for President?" queries some one. No reason in the world. All any woman has to do is to get the nomination and the votes, and the job is hers.—Stockton

BOUND FOR A CERTAIN STOCK FARM IN OHIO.

EGG PRODUCTION DECREASES

WASHINGTON, July 7.—The seasonal cycle of cold storage holdings of eggs shows a low point each year in February, when the total holdings run between 10,000 and 30,000 cases.
 The high point is reached in August, when the average holdings are between 6,000,000 and 7,000,000 cases of thirty dozen each. On August 1, last year, the total holdings were 7,550,000 cases, the highest on record. Between 75 and 80 per cent of the increase in storage holdings of eggs normally occurs in April and May of each year. This is the period of maximum production and low prices.

The early movement of eggs into storage this spring was much slower than in other years, and for a time it looked as if there would be a serious shortage. The freight difficulties in April also tended to complicate the situation. Recent reports show that the receipts of eggs at storage have increased.

STORAGE HOLDINGS OF CASES EGGS.

	1918	1919	1920
Jan. 1	1,281,000	739,346	1,542,146
Feb. 1	1,395,711	720,009	342,149
Mar. 1	20,157	26,283	28,849
Apr. 1	343,962	219,508	121,733
May 1	2,957,088	2,278,247	2,135,117
June 1	5,499,203	6,098,448	5,106,747

Another angle on the egg situation may be obtained by studying the receipts at the principal markets and St. Louis, from January 1 to June 12, decreased 17 per cent below the corresponding figures for last year.

MONTHLY RECEIPTS OF EGGS AT FIVE MARKETS.

	1919	1920	Per Cent
January	5,187	497,249	3.6
February	1,072,662	804,950	25.0
March	1,644,782	1,328,832	18.7
April	2,580,993	1,891,805	26.6
May	2,328,989	2,136,999	5.7
June 1-12	1,033,045	867,863	16.0
Total	5,176,058	7,597,346	17.2

The fact that the storage holdings and receipts at the principal markets are running from 15 to 20 per cent below last year, point toward a decreased production. The high cost of feed and other supplies has undoubtedly discouraged many people from keeping large flocks of hens.
 The present price of eggs in the principal markets is not significantly different from the price a year ago. On the other hand, corn, wheat, oats and milfeed are all considerably higher than last summer. Unless there is a corresponding increase in the price of eggs there will undoubtedly be a further reduction in flocks this fall.

The exports of eggs so far this year have been greater than last year, but the whole of this increase occurred prior to April and probably consists chiefly of storage eggs.
 The exports in April of this year were 1,743,480 dozen compared to 3,087,928 dozen last year and 3,609,527 dozen in March, 1920. The fact that this marked decrease in exports comes immediately after the season for the movement from storage indicates that there are few fresh eggs to be spared for export.
 This is a further indication of decreased production, although the April exports this year may be particularly low owing to the freight tie-up.

The following table gives a comparison between the significant egg figures of this year and last:

	1919	1920	Increase
Cases	6,098,448	5,106,747	*16.3
Receipts at five markets January 1	5,176,058	7,597,346	*17.2
Imports ten months ending April 30	18,107	41,066	*126.7
Exports ten months ending April 30	733,146	1,155,547	*157.6
Exports January 1 to May 1	271,352	346,929	*27.9

* Decrease. * Increase.

HONOR FRENCH STATESMEN

Paris—Commemorative plaques to three of the greatest leaders of France during the war were unveiled recently at the Hotel de Ville.
 The persons honored being the former president of the republic, M.

 the inscription declares that the hero had well deserved of his country. La Vendue, too, is to remind posterity of the work of M. Clemenceau. The sculptor, M. Sicard, is at this moment putting the finishing touches on a symbolic group. This group

A ONE-FUNNEL CUNARD.

The new Cunarder Seythia, acto have only one funnel, for all her to go, for only one is really neces-

ARMY OFFICER HAS 13 VERSIONS OF WIFE KILLING

CHICAGO, July 8.—Carl Wanderer, former army lieutenant, after being trapped in a maze of conflicting statements in connection with the slaying of his wife and an unidentified man in the vestibule of the Wanderer home June 21, confessed today that he had carried both automatic pistols used in the shooting—his own, which he used to kill the unidentified stranger, and the one found beside the body of the latter.

In this, the thirteenth version of the tragedy given by Wanderer, he declared that the slain man had grabbed one of the pistols from him and started the shooting, killing Mrs. Wanderer. Then, he said, he used the other pistol in fighting a duel which resulted in the killing of his wife's murderer.

Wanderer said further that the pistol seized by the supposed robber belonged to his cousin, Fred Hoffman, and that he had borrowed it to make repairs on the weapon. The police believe that Wanderer has only partially told the truth as to the double slaying and that he will break down and tell the full story soon.

LANDIS SCORES WILSON'S MERCY TO RICH CONVICT

CHICAGO, July 8.—Judge K. M. Landis, in a statement from the bench to members of the bar, today criticized the action of President Wilson in commuting the sentence of James Dorsey, reputed millionaire cattleman of Gilbert, Ill., from eight years to four years.

"I wonder what frame of mind he must have been in to cut such a sentence," the court said.

Dorsey was convicted of selling 13,000 head of cattle, which he had used the mails to advertise were full-blooded Holsteins. When the animals were delivered it developed they were common stock. It was also charged by the federal government that the cattle were diseased.

"This millionaire cattle king was sentenced some time ago to serve eight years in the federal prison for using the mails to sell tubercular cattle throughout the West," Judge Landis said. "The sentence was affirmed by the court of appeals but sentence was stayed a number of times. Finally, through the oversight of some one, Dorsey was placed in the penitentiary."

ROSENTHAL CASE HAS NEW ANGLE

Further examination of Samuel Rosenthal, 1511 Milvia street, Berkeley, Oakland merchant who is facing a felony charge in connection with an alleged attempt to defraud the Central National bank by misrepresenting the amount of his indebtedness in order to secure a loan, resulted this morning in the admission of his attorneys that their client had minimized his actual indebtedness in the report of his financial condition he gave the bank.

Rosenthal, who formerly operated a chain of grocery stores on Washington street, was arrested May 15 by inspectors Frank Rosnick and Richard McSorley after a complaint had been issued by A. J. Mount, cashier of the Central National bank, charging him with obtaining money under false pretenses.

Thirty-four witnesses were called to testify by the prosecution, and the case has attracted wide attention. Testimony was introduced by the prosecution this morning tending to show that the amount of money Rosenthal owed at the time of making the loan was nearly $1500 more than his financial statement to the bank showed.

In the previous hearing of the case there was a dispute concerning the identity of Rosenthal, it being argued that there was nothing before the court to show that the Rosenthal mentioned in the testimony of numerous creditors was the defendant. This morning testimony was introduced by the prosecution to establish the identity of Rosenthal. The case will be continued Monday.

BORDEAUX GIVES DAUGHTER TO BE ALAMEDA BRIDE

ALAMEDA, July 8.—A way romance began when John C. Shea, of Alameda, with the 16th Engineers, landed at Bordeaux, France, climaxed yesterday when Miss Claire Maurice was made Shea's bride in St. Joseph's Church by Father Eugene Warren.

Shea met Miss Maurice while on duty in Bordeaux. All the time his regiment was in France they kept in touch. When the day of leaving came, it was agreed that Miss Claire should follow her soldier when he was discharged. And so now it is Mr. and Mrs. John Shea and they are at the home of Shea's aunt, Mrs. Dan Quill, 3214 Central avenue, Alameda.

Mrs. Shea arrived in America last Saturday, a passenger on the S. S. Niagara. Her father is master mechanic of the Bordeaux Railway. The Sheas ultimately will reside at 204 San Antonio avenue.

PETERSEN TO FACE MORSE AT INQUIRY

Additional interest was injected into the investigation by Commissioner Morse into the disappearance of $750 worth of cocaine and morphine held as evidence by the police department today when it became known that Captain of Inspectors Petersen, just ordered reinstated at the head of the plain clothes division of the department, was to appear in the case as a witness tomorrow.

In response to an invitation by Commissioner Morse, who said he was powerless to subpoena the department head in view of his order dismissing him, Petersen notified the commissioner this morning that he would appear voluntarily at 3 o'clock Friday afternoon. It is expected that the session will conclude the inquiry.

Yesterday, Acting Captain of Inspectors James Drew and Inspectors Tom Woods, Tom Gallagher and Lou F. Agnew were examined. Commissioner Morse intimated that interesting developments might be expected.

Neglect of Injured Denied by Roosevelt Hospital Man

BERKELEY, July 8.—Charges that poor emergency treatment is being given at Roosevelt Hospital, where accident victims are treated under municipal arrangement, are denied by Dr. L. A. Marton, superintendent of the hospital.

"The city can't expect $1000 in service for $150 per month," said Dr. Marton. "To equip an emergency hospital in the way it has been suggested would mean the expenditure of $1000 per month for the employment of a full-time physician and nurses for a building, equipment and material. Roosevelt Hospital now receives $150 per month for service rendered. We are asking $200 for the coming year to cover the advance in material and help."

Charges that patients at the institution are neglected when brought in on emergency cases are false, says the doctor.

"We admit the arrangement is not of the best and that patients must be forced to wait for the arrival of a physician," says the hospital head. "It is seldom that a patient must wait for more than twenty minutes. A doctor arrives anywhere from ten to twenty minutes after the time he is needed. That is due to the fact that the four doctors on the Berkeley board of health take turns in treating emergency cases. There is no full-time doctor assigned to the task."

"The doctors who perform this service to emergency patients instead of being censured should be praised for they are working for glory only and receive not one cent of compensation. It is their interest in the city that prompts them to give this service, all being members of the board of health."

"The doctors who give attention to emergency cases, such taking a week's turn in answering calls, are Dr. Ernest Pape, city health officer, Dr. J. W. Peck, Dr. Robert Hector and Dr. W. R. Boone."

Plans for a municipal emergency hospital to be established at the Berkeley Dispensary, which is operated by the city, are now being considered by the council, which last week held up the contract with Roosevelt Hospital until further investigation was made.

Charges that patients are forced to wait in the hospital, suffering intense pain while physicians are summoned, sometimes with difficulty, have been made to the police. A complaint that Samuel Burns, summer session student at the University, was forced to wait for twenty minutes on Tuesday evening after being struck by an automobile driven by S. Hall Bither, before his injuries were attended to, was lodged with Chief of Police Vollmer yesterday.

Youth Held for Theft of Mert Smith Auto

John Barker, alias 'Ulrich' St. Cries, the youth who attempted to steal an automobile owned by Mert Smith, newspaper man, was charged by the police this morning with violating section 28 of the state motor vehicle laws, which prohibits the driving away of any car without the owner's consent.

St. Cries, who originally gave the name of Barker, said that he had intended to take the car to Sacramento, but did not notice the lock on the wheel.

Week held up the contract with Roosevelt Hospital until further investigation was made.

HUBERT'S SACK CROWED, BUT IT HAD THAT RIGHT

People should refrain from carrying live chickens in a sack in East Oakland.

Hubert J. Harrison did. Patrolman L. S. Rogers saw him and followed.

Then it happened—From the sack came the muffled crow of a rooster.

Rogers went up and tapped Harrison on the shoulder.

"The games up, bo," he said. Harrison went in spite of voluble protests.

This morning Harrison explained he has a chicken ranch outside the city and he supplies customers with the raw material for fried dinners.

The apologies of the police did not perceptibly soften the indignation of the chicken rancher this morning.

Workers for Borough City Lay Lines to Boost Plan

BERKELEY, July 8.—Deciding that a borough system of government under which each community would reserve its autonomy is the only form of consolidation which would have a chance to be accepted by the county at large, a committee of city officials meeting last evening in the office of Mayor Louis Bartlett took the first formal step toward bringing the issue before the voters of the Eastbay district.

A public meeting to which delegates from all incorporated and unincorporated communities of the county and city and improvement organizations will be asked to attend was called for 8 o'clock Thursday evening, August 5, in the council chamber of the Oakland City Hall. At that time it is proposed to organize for a campaign to bring the consolidation issue before the voters under the auspices of "The New Charter League of Alameda County."

A tentative charter for the organization was discussed last night. At last night's committee appointed at a meeting held last week in Berkeley, William J. Locke, city attorney of Alameda, and chairman of the committee, failed to attend, but was represented in the discussion by Councilman Al Latham of Alameda. Mayor John L. Davis of Oakland was represented by his secretary, H. J. Williams, secretary of the Alameda County Tax Association, was present in an unofficial capacity.

At last night's committee meeting, the committee failed to attempt to represent in the discussion by Councilman Al Latham of Alameda. Mayor John L. Davis of Oakland was represented by his secretary, H. J. Williams, secretary of the Alameda County Tax Association, was present in an unofficial capacity.

C. OF C. ELECTS NEW MEMBERS

ALAMEDA, July 8.—A report of the recent meeting of city committees from the Eastbay, on the city and county consolidation plan, was given last night at the regular meeting of the directors of the Chamber of Commerce.

The committee, which is composed of City Attorney W. J. Locke, E. J. S. Shaw, J. S. McDowell, Councilman Al Latham, and C. L. Tilden, favors Alameda keeping closely in touch with all proceedings of the proposed consolidation, and not taking any definite action until later. The directors approved the draft of the new constitution and by-laws, to go before the membership at the meeting two weeks hence, July 21, for ratification, change, or amendment. The new constitution and by-laws comprise a simplified governing instrument, providing for both active and residential members. Residential members will be represented on the telephone company, as to what number of residents and what quantity of service could be signed up.

The following new members were elected: Schow & Schulze, Fred P. Tucker, Vergez & Mathebat, I. Sturges. The following residential applicants were elected to membership: Frederick Maurer, Carlos P. De Berna, C. W. Du Four, J. P. Agnew, Frederick P. Savre, N. B. Turner, A. J. Merle, Henry C. Hacke, Captain Andrew Dixon, A. C. Dirch, R. L. Hill, Walter H. Cramer, Mrs. E. Russell, H. C. Bennett, Alexander Barr.

The Bay Farm Island electric light, power and telephone committee which has been working to secure light, power and phone service for Bay Farm Island residents reported that it was now up to the island residents to agree with the public utilities board of the city and the telephone company, as to what number of residents and what quantity of service could be signed up.

HOUSEWIVES PLAN TO REDUCE MILK

ALAMEDA, July 8.—A plan for lowering milk prices is under consideration by the Alameda Housewives League, according to Mrs. Grace Hoffman in an address before the league this afternoon. The increased cost of milk for housewives was discussed by Mrs. Mary Burke. The usual sale of milk, bread, eggs and produce at a wholesale price was held following the meeting, with Mrs. Jessie Tenney acting as distributor. Mrs. Mary Larkin Marston, president of the league, occupied the chair.

Wife Limits Food, Man's Divorce Plant

TULSA, Ok., July 7.—L. Matthews, suing for divorce in district court, testified that his wife compelled him to eat sparingly and cut his own hair.

"I haven't had a full meal in a year," Matthews told the judge. "The first thing I did after marrying her was to buy her a set of false teeth so she could eat. Since that time I have had to keep her stomach full," Mrs. Matthews said.

PRELIMINARY BOYS STAGE THE BEST FIGHT AT LOCAL SHOW

LOUIE GUISTO, BACK FROM NORTHWEST, SAYS OAKLAND TEAM IS PLAYING GREAT GAME OF BALL

OAKS' FIRST SACKER SAYS THAT BRUBAKER IS FINE BALL PLAYER

Local Club Looked 75 Per Cent Better in the Portland Series, Then Came Injuries.

By EDDIE MURPHY.
A homer in the eleventh inning by "Brick" Eldred dropped the Oaks from sixth to seventh place and left them but a few points ahead of the Sacramento Coyotes. Louie Guisto, the big Oak first-sacker, returned home yesterday and said that the Seattle players had planned to celebrate when they would get out of the basement, so there must have been a hot time in the northern town last night. Louie is here nursing a grouch because he couldn't stay north and help the Oaks in the series against Clyde Wares' gang. He didn't wait long enough for his injured ankle to heal before breaking back into the lineup, and now he will be out for another week at least. Louie's ankle gave way again last Friday. It seems that the Oaks lose all their confidence when the big first-sacker is out of the game. Louie was back in the lineup and playing swell baseball when the club showed a sudden winning streak.

GOSSIP of GOLFERS

VANCOUVER, B. C., July 8.—Eight players were still in the running for the Pacific Northwest Amateur Golf title when final cards for the day's play in the championship tourney here were turned in last night. The players, who will compete today for the right to enter the semi-finals, were: Paul Hunter, Pasadena, 1920 medalist; M. S. Rosenblatt, R. Williams, Forest Park, and O. L. Chandler, Portland, Ore.; L. Chandler, Eugene, Medford, Ore.; Robert Speers, Seattle, and Robert Bone, Vancouver. Rosenblatt again defeated Jack Neville of Oakland.

Oakland Fans Going to Vallejo Sunday

VALLUJO, July 8.—A number of Oakland fans are expected to come here Sunday to witness the baseball game to be played at South Park between the Oaks and the San Francisco Giants. The Oaks are expected to win, but the Giants are expected to play well.

Coney Island May Be Scene of Big Fight

NEW YORK, July 8.—Coney Island, New York's playground, was added to the list of possible battle grounds for the prospect of a Dempsey-Pemphrey boxing match when the manager of the fight, Jack Dempsey, was seen at the beach.

Ketchel and Hawkie Are Wanted Again

VALLUJO, July 8.—Hawkie and Ketchel are wanted again at Vallejo. The two boys put up a great fight at the local fair, and the two boys would undoubtedly draw a record house.

How do you choose a cigar?

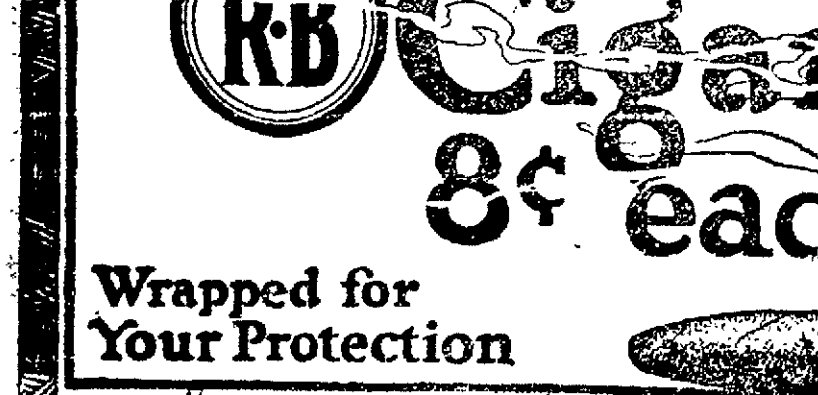

"Oh sure I have my try-out stunt for cigars," is the come-back of the ex-ace.
"Slip down into a deep, cosy chair—light up and take a long, full draw. Get the feel of the smoke in your mouth and throat.
"Aroma, flavor, just the right kick—all speak straight out of the first fragrant puff from a good old R.B.
"At once I'm off the ground sailing on an even keel, and the world's a fine old world for the length of a smoke."

Hunches aside—here are six things you can know about R.B. cigars

1. Imported Sumatra wrapper.
2. Selected long-leaf filler.
3. Larders size for appearance, convenience and free draught.
4. Consistent quality. R.B. is always the same good smoke.
5. It is the sincere policy of R.B. manufacturers to make a good cigar and keep it good.
6. The R.B. distribution plan helps the dealer get your cigars to you in right condition.

How do you choose a cigar?

"Oh sure I have my try-out stunt for cigars," is the come-back of the ex-ace.
"Slip down into a deep, cosy chair—light up and take a long, full draw. Get the feel of the smoke in your mouth and throat.
"Aroma, flavor, just the right kick—all speak straight out of the first fragrant puff from a good old R.B.
"At once I'm off the ground sailing on an even keel, and the world's a fine old world for the length of a smoke."

Hunches aside—here are six things you can know about R.B. cigars

1. Imported Sumatra wrapper.
2. Selected long-leaf filler.
3. Larders size for appearance, convenience and free draught.
4. Consistent quality. R.B. is always the same good smoke.
5. It is the sincere policy of R.B. manufacturers to make a good cigar and keep it good.
6. The R.B. distribution plan helps the dealer get your cigars to you in right condition.

CIGARETTE BAN CAUSES WOMAN TO SEEK DEATH

Death by gas and chloroform was preferable to life without cigarettes to Mrs. Agnes Chambers, 507 Eighth street, who last night made an unsuccessful attempt at suicide. Mrs. Chambers is 51 years old. For several weeks she is said to have been suffering from acute dementia, brought about by her inability to give up the nicotine habit and by ill health. Charles Chambers gives this explanation of her act. He says he has been endeavoring to control his wife's smoking. She has threatened to end her life several times. Mrs. Chambers was lying propped in bed with a tube leading from the gas jet in her mouth and a partially drained bottle of poison beside her when her husband returned from work at 10 o'clock last night. The police ambulance rushed the unconscious woman to the emergency hospital. Attend- ants say she will live.

Four Come to Grief
by "Jackass Brandy"

"Jackass Brandy" brought grief to four Oakland citizens last night. The first to succumb to its effects was John Smith, 1674 Atlantic street, who was found comatose near his home, according to the police report. When Patrolman Albert Deike found a bottle of grappa in the automobile of R. Angerotti at Stanford and Marshall streets, he arrested him. Otto Giannini and Phil Guidotti, as well as the owner of the machine.

Oakland's Woman Burglar
Is Watched at Day Robbery

Oakland's woman burglar figured in at least one daring burglary in a series of marauding operations carried on last night in widely dispersed parts of the city in which several homes were entered and hundreds of dollars in loot taken by the criminals. Shortly before dusk last night Mrs. E. DePew, 521 East Fifteenth street, noticed a car containing a man and woman drive up to the residence of Mrs. J. D. O'Hara, 515 East Fifteenth street. The woman ascended from the car, according to Mrs. DePew, and entered the house. She emerged a short time later and beckoned to the man.

JEWELRY WORTH $500 TAKEN

Burglars last night entered the home of Mrs. Harry Douthett, 322 Alameda street, by forcing the kitchen door open with an iron bar. Jewelry valued at $55 and many other articles formed the loot obtained by the thieves. The police were notified of the burglary and inspectors were sent this morning in an attempt to gain some clue to the identity of the burglars. Theymen smashed in the door of the cafe at 101 Pacific street, owned by Thomas Cheek, last night and partially wrecked the place. When the proprietor came this morning he found the cash register broken and the contents, consisting of small change, gone. Silverware and other articles were taken by the thieves. R. C. Matthews, 1523 Chestnut street, reported to the police this morning that a burglar gang had jumped open the windows of his house in the night and ransacked the place. His watch and some jewelry were taken.

HOUSE RANSACKED

H. C. Wall of the Golden West hotel notified the police today that during his absence last night from his room thieves entered and stripped it of everything of value. Mrs. C. Souza, 474 Alameda street, reported the pilfering of $13 from her purse while on the downtown streets last night. It is believed by the police to be the work of the pick-pocket "mob" which has been operating in Oakland.

Numerous complaints were received by the police this morning concerning the operations of thieves in taking tires and accessories from cars.

Using a three-foot crowbar to pry open a French window in the home of Louis Bernstein, 51 Grand avenue, Oakland financier, burglars entered the house and looted it of the family silverware. Finger prints were found this morning in the parts of the house and the police believe the robbery was by amateurs. Silverware and jewelry valued at several hundred dollars was carried away by the thieves in a suitcase. No definite estimate has been given yet concerning the amount of the loss.

Wife Wants $75 and to Dwell by Herself

After agreeing with his wife to sell their Oakland home and move to San Francisco, Henry Joseph, employed in Berkeley, deserted her, according to the suit for $75 a month separate maintenance filed by Mrs. Catherine Joseph. She declares her husband first agreed, when he left her last February, to pay her $50 a month but now refuses to give her more than $40.

WIFE HIS JUDGE;
HE CAN MARRY NOW

SAN FRANCISCO, July 8.—When Mrs. Hattie Renahan, 12 Rausch street, appeared before Superior Judge Mogan and asked for a divorce, she pleaded for mercy for her husband when the judge favored a prison term. She won.

Mrs. Renahan testified. James Renahan, New York contractor, deserted her for another woman who was mother of two of his children and that he had refused to return under any conditions except that he bring the other woman and the children.

"I believe it to be your duty to have him sentenced to prison," said the court.

"I do not wish the burden placed on those children," said the wife, who is not a mother. "I feel my duty to divorce him so that he can marry and legalize them."

As Mrs. Renahan was the one most concerned, the divorce was granted.

"If I had asked his arrest, five persons would have had to suffer," she said. "The unhappiness had fallen on me anyway, so why should I not bear it all? What woman would bring harm to any child? To ask for a divorce was the only thing I could do."

Renahan is free to marry because his wife sat in judgment on his case.

Wife Says Husband
Had 'Previous' Wives

Although Mrs. Alice H. Church filed an answer denying the charges of extravagance made by Albert T. Church, she did not appear in court to contest the action and he was granted the interlocutory decree by Judge A. F. St. Sure.

In her answer Mrs. Church declared Church spent his income in paying alimony to "one or more of his former wives." Church told the court he had only been married twice previously.

NEWSPAPER IS STOLEN; THIEF
GIVEN 90 DAYS

SAN FRANCISCO, July 8.—Ninety days in the county jail was the sentence imposed on John Williams of San Francisco by Police Judge Fitzpatrick for the theft of a newspaper which had been left by a carrier at 303 Dolores street. The sentence is in line with a campaign against newspaper thieves.

Caucasian Worker
Denies Ill-Health

Statements that she had returned from the Caucasus, where she had been engaged in work for the Near East Relief, in broken health are denied today by Miss Margaret Coley of Oakland. Miss Coley arrived in Oakland from the scene of her humanitarian work in January, and it is because she is dependent wholly upon obtaining employment for her own maintenance that she asks the correction of a statement which was given some publicity.

Pound Receipts for Month Show $8457

The city coffers were made richer last month by $8457.70 through the activities of the municipal pound, according to the statement filed with the City Council this morning. The monotony of the usual collection of stray animals was relieved by the introduction of one donkey as a guest of the municipal animal hospital. The other collections included 132 dogs, 32 goats, 3 horses and 6 cows.

CITY OFFICIALS
SUBMIT BUDGETS

The budget of the department of revenue and finance, carrying a total of $30,770, was this morning added to the list of estimates submitted to Commissioner Raccus.

The estimate calls for $1250 for the commissioner's office, $6835 for the office of the city treasurer, $29,640 for the tax collector's department, $6555 for the department of permits and licenses and $6450 for street improvement bonds.

The legal department budget was submitted yesterday, with a total of $29,950, including a new clerk at $2100 a year, an extra stenographer, and salary increases approximating $4000. The library department budget is also in, with a total of $187,320.

Estimates yet to be submitted are those of the department of streets and the department of public works.

Oakland Man to Help
Disabled Soldiers

Ralph T. Fisher, former Oakland civil service commissioner, has been appointed chief of the rehabilitation division of the Federal board of vocational training in Washington, D. C., following its reorganization to make use of $90,000,000 appropriated by Congress for training disabled soldiers. Fisher succeeds U. W. Lamkin, now president of the board. Director Lamkin, accompanied by Calvin McIntosh and H. L. Brunson, aids, will visit Oakland within the next month.

"A National Menace"

That is the way the recent Industrial Conference at Washington, called by President Wilson, characterized the situation of the American educational system today, a situation that made 140,000 school teachers leave the profession last year to enter more lucrative fields.

A part of the report follows:

"An inquiry made by the Bureau of Education showed that in January, 1920, more than 15,000 teachers' positions in the public schools of the country were vacant because the teachers, to fill them could not be had. Over 12,000 positions were filled, in order that they may be filled at all, by teachers whose qualifications are below the minimum standard of requirement in the several states. It is the estimate of the Commissioner of Education that more than 300,000 of the 650,000 school teachers of the country are today 'below any reasonable minimum standard of qualifications.' Many of those who remain in our schools receive less pay than common laborers, despite the long years of preparation for their profession that they have undertaken. This situation is a national menace. It is useless to talk of Americanization and of the diminution of illiteracy and other national educational problems, unless it is faced at once."

Oakland will contribute its share toward ridding the United States of the "national educational menace" by paying its teachers a professional wage for professional services.
